Prichard, 2018-09-17 Essays from academics across a spectrum of perspectives The Standing Commission on Liturgy and Music sought input from multiple sources in order to better understand the charge of the General Convention of 2015 suggesting that it present a plan for the revision of the Book of Common Prayer to the 2018 Convention While the individual chapters of this volume raise a variety of differing issues they share a common assumption that one of the sources of information for the Standing Commission and the Church in its deliberations ought to be the community of academically trained liturgical scholars The hope of this volume is to open a conversation across the church that will continue in the future Accompany Them with Singing--The Christian Funeral Thomas G. Long, 2009-10-02 Thomas Long begins this fascinating volume by describing how the Christian funeral developed historically theologically and liturgically and then discusses recent cultural trends in funeral practices including the rise in both cremations and memorial services He describes the basic pattern for a funeral service details options in funeral planning identifies characteristics of a good funeral and provides thoughtful guidance for preaching at a funeral Long also notes a disturbing trend toward funeral services that seem theologically right and pastorally caring but actually depart from the primary aims of the Christian funeral He argues that a new less theological and less satisfying service that focuses on the mourner has begun to erode the Christian view. He contrasts the ancient grand community drama with today's trend toward body-less memorial services that focus primarily on the living and grief management. This is a loss for the church, he argues, and he calls for the church to reclaim the classic metaphor.

Language in the Liturgy
Barry Spurr, 2025-01-01
Language in the Liturgy is an historically based, linguistically focused account of the development of liturgical language in English in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches over the past half century. It analyses issues of style and expression in a wide range of texts, setting this analysis within larger contexts of ecclesiastical and societal change since the 1970s. The Book of Common Prayer is taken as the benchmark of classical liturgical composition in English, not only because it was the first liturgy to be composed in the language but also because of the universally acknowledged beauty of it. Professor Spurr makes a detailed comparative and analytical linguistic study of the Prayer Book and the liturgies composed in English in the modern idiom. He argues for a renewal of the renewal by the restoration of an appropriate solemnity and sacredness of linguistic expression as exemplified in the traditional Prayer Book rites. The book also includes chapters on the role of music and of silence in worship. This stimulating study will be of interest to all concerned about the future direction of liturgies in English in the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches.

The Living Church, 1942
All Things Necessary
Marti Rideout, 2012-12
This is a complete revision of a detailed resource which has been the essential guide for church musicians working in the Episcopal church for over 20 years. A Guide to the Practice of Church Music 1989 was originally written by Marion J. Hatchett, who taught for many years at the Episcopal seminary at Sewanee, was key in developing materials for The Hymnal 1982. This updated revision contains brief but articulate discussions of the role of music in the church, the variety and nature of music ministries, people, cantor, choirs, organists, directors, instrumentalists, clergy, and music committees; principles for the selection of hymns, psalms, canticles, and other service music; and their sources in materials from CPI and beyond, guidance for planning services for all rites of the church in the BCP and the Book of Occasional Services. Updated revision includes hymnals, electronic resources, and materials published since The Hymnal 1982.
