

The background of the slide is an abstract painting with a complex, layered composition. It features a variety of colors including deep blues, purples, reds, and earthy browns. The brushstrokes are visible and expressive, creating a sense of movement and depth. The overall style is reminiscent of modernist or expressionist art, with sharp lines and a fragmented perspective.

Book And Postcolonial Orient Difference Provincialising Materialism:

The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar, 2014-05-08 In The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar presents a far reaching analysis of the political economic and ideological cross currents that have shaped and informed postcolonial studies preceding and following the 1989 moment of world history The valences of the post in postcolonialism are unfolded via some key historical political postcolonial texts showing inter alia that they are replete with elements of Romantic Orientalism and the Oriental Renaissance Kaiwar mobilises a critical body of classical and contemporary Marxism to demonstrate that far richer understandings of Europe not to mention colonialism modernity and difference are possible than with a postcolonialism captive to phenomenological existentialism and post structuralism concluding that a narrative so enriched is indispensable for a transformative non Eurocentric internationalism From Internationalism to Postcolonialism Rossen Djagalov, 2020-03-19 Would there have been a Third World without the Second Perhaps but it would have looked very different From Internationalism to Postcolonialism recounts the story of two Cold War era cultural formations that claimed to represent the Third World project in literature and cinema and offers a compelling genealogy of contemporary postcolonial studies From Orientalism to Postcolonialism Sucheta Mazumdar, Vasant Kaiwar, Thierry Labica, 2010-11 An intervention in one of the most fundamental debates confronting the social science and humanities namely how to understand global and local historical processes as interconnected developments affecting human actors Global Capital and Social Difference V. Sujatha, 2020-08-31 This volume offers insights into ongoing global socioeconomic transformations by directing attention to the significance of labour work craft community social institutions social movements and emergent subjectivities in different parts of the world This is in contrast to theories that project globalisation as a process driven exclusively by global capital and technology a scheme in which some parts of the world forever will be peripheries supplying labour and natural resources the lives and work of those people purged of originality meaning and value by the very construct that describes them Together the chapters in the book present a nonessentialist and non linear reading of global transformations by examining the relations and adaptations between economy polity and society which remains a fundamentally unresolved question in the social sciences Combining a wealth of conceptual and empirical investigations this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of sociology globalisation studies anthropology economics development studies and area studies Unruly Comparison Alvin K. Wong, 2025-04-18 In Unruly Comparison Alvin K Wong examines queerness in Hong Kong through a transdisciplinary analysis of Sinophone literature cinema visual culture and civil society Moving beyond Eurocentrism in queer theory and China centrism in area studies Wong frames Hong Kong as a model for global comparison by theorizing a method of unruly comparison acknowledging the incommensurability of cultural texts and queer figures across different temporal and spatial locations Here unruly comparison positions Hong Kong as an undefinable time space that troubles historicist colonial and China centric renderings of the city as merely a site of British colonial legacy

Chinese rule or global capital Wong analyzes queer interracial desire in WWII a cinema of gay male cosmopolitanism queer intimacy among migrant workers trans visibility and legality cross border sex work and the queer diaspora of Hong Kong after the 2019 protests Through Wong's readings Hong Kong becomes a queer region of racial gender and sexual incommensurability By foregrounding the friction asymmetry and perverse juxtapositions of unruly comparison of Hong Kong with the Sinophone world Wong reframes key debates in queer theory and East Asian studies The Debate on Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital Vivek Chibber, 2016-12-08 Leading thinkers critiques of award winning Postcolonial Theory as well as the author's responses and reformulations Vivek Chibber's Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital was hailed on publication as without any doubt a bomb and the most substantive effort to dismantle the field through historical reasoning published to date It immediately unleashed one of the most important recent debates in social theory ranging across the humanities and social sciences on the status of postcolonial studies modernity and much else This book brings together major critics of Chibber's work to assess the efficacy of his argument from differing perspectives Included are Chibber's own spirited responses and reformulations in light of these criticisms With contributions by Partha Chatterjee Gayatri Spivak Bruce Robbins Ho fung Hung William H Sewell Jr Bruce Cumings George Steinmetz Michael Schwartz David Pederson Stein Sundst l Eriksen and Achin Vanaik Queer Sinophone Cultures Howard Chiang, Ari Larissa Heinrich, 2013-11-26 The Sinophone framework emphasises the diversity of Chinese speaking communities and cultures and seeks to move beyond a binary model of China and the West Indeed this strikingly resembles attempts within the queer studies movement to challenge the dimorphisms of sex and gender Bringing together two areas of study that tend to be marginalised within their home disciplines Queer Sinophone Cultures innovatively advances both Sinophone studies and queer studies It not only examines film and literature from Mainland China but expands its scope to encompass the underrepresented Sinophone world at large in this case Taiwan Hong Kong Malaysia Singapore and beyond Further where queer studies in the U S Europe and Australia often ignore non Western cultural phenomena this book focuses squarely on Sinophone queerness providing fresh critical analyses of a range of topics from works by the famous director Tsai Ming Liang to the history of same sex soft core pornography made by the renowned Shaw Brothers Studios By instigating a dialogue between Sinophone studies and queer studies this book will have broad appeal to students and scholars of modern and contemporary China studies particularly to those interested in film literature media and performance It will also be of great interest to those interested in queer studies more broadly How the West Came to Rule Alexander Anievas, Kerem Nisanciolu, 2015-06-20 Winner of International Studies Association ISA's International Political Sociology Best Book Prize for 2017 Winner of British International Studies Association BISA's International Political Economy Working Group Book Prize of 2016 Shortlisted for the ISA Book Prize Mainstream historical accounts of the development of capitalism describe a process which is fundamentally European a system that was born in the mills and factories of England or under the guillotines of the French Revolution In this groundbreaking book a very different story is told How the West Came to Rule offers a interdisciplinary and international historical account of the origins of capitalism It argues that contrary to the dominant wisdom capitalism s origins should not be understood as a development confined to the geographically and culturally sealed borders of Europe but the outcome of a wider array of global processes in which non European societies played a decisive role Through an outline of the uneven histories of Mongolian expansion New World discoveries Ottoman Habsburg rivalry the development of the Asian colonies and bourgeois revolutions Alexander Anievas and Kerem Nisancioglu provide an account of how these diverse events and processes came together to produce capitalism History, Politics and Theory in the Great Divergence Debate Olya Murphy, 2023-12-31 World history suffers from a paucity of clearly articulated convincing explanations While the rise of postmodernism and challenges to Eurocentrism did lead to some important correctives the pendulum has swung too far the other direction with a corresponding danger of throwing the baby out with the bathwater We need careful theoretically informed debates about ways of organizing world history What constitutes a good historical explanation What should guide historians to choose relevant facts Which theoretical schools could be made useful and to what ends These questions are especially relevant to the main topic of this book the great divergence between the west and the rest of the world and how this historical rupture is to be explained The book provides extensive critical analyses of some of the key claims in world history analyzing their strengths as well as their major weaknesses too often rooted in insufficient familiarity of historians with theories they discard It also historicizes the field and the debates to partly account for what caused some theories to become more influential and others to fall into oblivion despite the fact that the more influential frameworks are seriously flawed and some of the more marginalized ideas are more coherent and plausible The book offers insights regarding the theoretical and political relevance of older debates about the transition to capitalism and historical materialism Three major schools of thought in world history are critically examined through an in depth theoretical and comparative analysis that has not been undertaken elsewhere the so called California School World Systems Analysis and Marxist theories of history capitalism and the transition from feudalism to capitalism Murphy argues that despite some of the more recent criticisms of older approaches to world history the older theories remain indispensable for the writing of world history and for coming to terms with issues of global poverty inequality and eco catastrophe Postcolonial Studies Benita Parry, 2004 Law, Orientalism and Postcolonialism Piyel Halder, 2007 Focusing on the problem of pleasure Law Orientalism and Postcolonialism uncovers the organizing principles by which the legal subject was colonized That occidental law was complicit in colonial expansion is obvious What remains to be addressed however is the manner in which law and legal discourse sought to colonize individual subjects as subjects of law It was through the permission of pleasure that modern Western subjects were refined and domesticated Legally sanctioned outlets for private and social enjoyment instilled and continue to instil within the individual tight self control over behaviour There are however states of behaviour considered to be repugnant to and in excess of modern codes of civility Drawing on a broad range of literature including classical jurisprudence eighteenth century Orientalist scholarship early travel literature and nineteenth century debates surrounding the rule of law yet concentrating on the experience of British India the argument here is that such excesses were deemed to be an Oriental phenomenon Through the encounter with the Orient and with the fantasy of its excess Piyel Haldar concludes the relationship between the subject and the law was transformed and must therefore be re assessed Postcolonial Historical Materialism Filippo Menozzi, 2026-10-29 Through a reappraisal of the work of four major figures in critical theory Ernst Bloch Georg Lukács Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin Filippo Menozzi rethinks the tradition of critical theory in relation to pressing concerns in postcolonial studies Revealing these authors continued relevance to urgent issues in the 21st century from struggles against racism to social movements and the transmutations of global capitalism Menozzi reimagines them as central to an alternative genealogy of critical theory that moves beyond their European provenance and the limitations of Western Marxism In doing so this book challenges more broadly the view of critical theory as steeped in Eurocentrism culturally conservative and politically defeatist Contesting this in four chapters Postcolonial Historical Materialism inserts Adorno Lukács Bloch and Benjamin into key contemporary sites of militancy and debate Engaging with a wide range of European and non European sources Menozzi proposes a new concept of postcolonial historical materialism indicating how the heritage of critical theory can reopen global possibilities of utopia and revolution in a non utopian age of global emergencies social unrest and the unfinished history of decolonisation
