

THE TEXT

Ukraine's emergency services have singled out Bucha and the area around it as facing one of the worst humanitarian situations in Ukraine. The biggest emergency is in Mariupol, a key port city of more than 400,000 people. Bucha is encircled by the Russian army and partly occupied. It has come under relentless bombardment since the start of the war. No humanitarian aid or food has reached the town for days.

2. Escaping Bucha meant a 17km (10.5-mile) trek for Dmytro, a 30-year-old lawyer, along with his sister, his mother and his two grandmothers, aged 74 and 83. They were joined by two neighbours and a small dog. As shells exploded nearby, they had to fling themselves to the ground at least 20 times. Not long after they had left, his grandmother could walk no more and he and his sister had to drag her for much of the way under fire. "My granny begged us to leave her behind. She didn't want to be a burden for us but we didn't drop our loved ones."

3. There was no safe corridor for evacuation and no help for them. They knew the risk but carried on until they eventually reached safety near Kyiv in what the family believes is a miracle. "On our way out of Bucha I saw bodies lying on the ground all over the place. I saw people going crazy in front of their burning houses. I saw entire apartment blocks torn out of the soil. It was appalling."

4. Dmytro fled when he decided he and his family had little chance to survive.

They had to avoid a Russian checkpoint to get out of the town and then once they had reached neighbouring Irpin they hid under the town's half-destroyed bridge. They were warned repeatedly of the deadly risk they were taking. Shrapnel flew past them and they saw houses and a bridge hit as they passed.

5. "My whole life was flashing by. I was praying to God to survive," says Dmytro. The heaviest shelling came from the direction they were heading in as Ukrainian forces tried to halt the Russian advance. "I realised that was our route to safety, despite the loudest explosions coming from over there."

They finally reached a bus heading for Kyiv. But for many others in their town the nightmare continues.
