Reginald no el sullivan of the American Ambulance Field Service has written entertainingly from France His letters were addressed to his aunt Miss Mary Louise Phelan with the request that they be passed around among a circle of five or six relatives and friends who were deeply interested not only in his career as a member of the Field Service but in his daily doings and his reactions upon current events As there has been a request from many sources to read these letters I have seen fit to have them printed for private circulation without the knowledge of the writer and with the intention of sending copies to his personal friends as a Christmas souvenir They may also have some value as a picture of a peace loving young American interested more in saving than in taking life yet impelled by a high sense of duty to enlist J D P About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

AUTHOR, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from Diary of Section VIII American Ambulance Field Service The human interest of this record sufficiently justifies publication but it is printed primarily because its story is typical of the day's work of every Section in the Field Service and in order that those Americans who have given ambulances and such practical encouragement may better realize how much their cooperation has actually accomplished There are now nine of these Sections attached to the Armies of France at various points along the Western Front from the Channel to Alsace and in Salonika During the next few weeks six more are being equipped and sent out Of the men immediately going over to drive these new cars Chicago University is sending two units of twenty five men each and the Universities of Leland Stanford Harvard Wisconsin and California are each contributing a like unit More than sixty other American colleges and universities are already represented While all these men quite realize that their work is but a matter of duty to the cause and nation they wish to serve the mere fact of their presence and voluntary sharing of the risk and labor involved has done much to convince France of the feeling that really exists for her in this country However great the help which new circumstances might make it
