Charles R. G. Bain ,2018-11-27 For a time the flying boat was seen as the way of the future These aircraft so strange and foreign to the modern mind once criss crossed the world and fulfilled essential military roles

In his latest book for Fonthill Charles Bain looks at the golden age of the flying boat when these sometimes strange and often beautiful vessels spanned the globe These vessels a combination of ship and airplane found themselves working as patrol aircraft passenger aircraft transports and even as combat aircraft This volume contains their stories from memorable aircraft such as the Short Sunderland and Boeing 314 Clipper to the craft that roamed the Pacific Theatre of the Second World War to forgotten giants from Saunders Roe and even strange jet fighters that once landed like ducks It even includes the flying boat that has not let time get in the way of doing its job the Martin Mars Each of these aircraft has a story worthy of the telling and often a memorable role to play in the history of aviation High Hulls delves deeply into a long vanished part of aviation s golden age     The Industrial Arts Index ,1930     Flying ,1918     The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1911
