EBOOK: Radical Consumption: Shopping for Change in Contemporary Culture Jo Littler, 2008-11-16 Ethical consumption fair trade consumer protests brand backlashes green goods boycotts and downshifting these are all now familiar consumer activities and in some cases are almost mainstream They are part of the expanding field of radical consumption in a world where we are encouraged to shop for change But just how radical are these forms of consumption This book offers an interdisciplinary approach to examining contemporary radical consumption analyzing its possibilities and problems moralities methods of mediation and its connections to wider cultural formations of production and politics Jo Littler argues that we require a more expansive vocabulary and to open up new approaches of enquiry in order to understand the area s many contradictions strengths and weaknesses Drawing on a number of contemporary theories terms and debates in media and cultural studies she uses a range of specific case studies to bring theory to life By analysing practices of radical consumption the book explores a number of key questions Is ethical consumption merely a sop for the middle classes What are the contradictions of green consumption Should we understand corporate social responsibility as a form of consumer oriented greenwash Who benefits from the new forms of cosmopolitan caring consumption Can such forms of consumption ever move beyond their niche market status to become an effective political force Can we really buy our way to a better more equitable or sustainable future Radical Consumption is important reading for cultural media and sociology students Up and Out of Poverty Philip T. Kotler, Nancy R. Lee, 2009-06-11 In this book legendary marketing expert Philip Kotler and social marketing innovator Nancy Lee consider poverty from a radically different and powerfully new viewpoint that of the marketer Kotler and Lee assess each proposed path to poverty reduction from traditional large scale foreign aid to improved education and job training economic development to microfinance They offer powerful new insights into why so many anti poverty programs fail and propose a new paradigm that can achieve far better results Kotler and Lee show how to apply advanced marketing strategies and techniques including segmentation targeting and positioning to systematically put in place the conditions poor people need to escape poverty Through real case studies you ll learn how these marketing techniques can help promote health education community building personal motivation and more The authors provide the first complete marketing informed methodology for addressing specific poverty related problems and assessing the results They also demonstrate how national and local anti poverty programs can be improved by more effectively linking government NGOs and private companies Over the past 30 years the authors social marketing techniques have been successfully applied to health care environmental protection family planning and many other social challenges Now Kotler and Lee show how they can be applied to the largest social challenge of all global poverty The Sustainable MBA Giselle Weybrecht, 2010-09-24 The Sustainable MBA provides the knowledge and tools to help you green your job and organization to turn sustainability talk into action for the benefit of your bottom line and society as a whole Based on more than 100 interviews with experts in business international organizations NGOs and universities from around the world this first of its kind guide brings together all the pieces of the business and sustainability puzzle including The basics on what sustainability is why you should be interested how to get started and what a sustainable organization looks like A wide range of tools guidelines techniques and concepts that you can use to implement sustainability practices Tools and tips on how to green your job including how to sell these ideas to your team how to make green choices as a consumer and how to organize green meetings A survey of the exciting trends in sustainable business happening around the world A wealth of links to interesting resources for more information The Sustainable MBA is organized like a business school course allowing you easy access to the relevant information you need about sustainability and Accounting Economics Entrepreneurship Ethics Finance Marketing Organizational Behaviour Operations and Strategy Giselle Weybrecht's commitment to sustainable development goes back to before her university years Since then she has expanded her reach to local and national government business social entrepreneurs and the international community She worked for the United Nations World Water Assessment Programme is a fellow of the UC Berkeley based Beahrs Environmental Leadership Programme and holds an MBA from London Business School She is currently developing new approaches to raise awareness among managers of how they can incorporate sustainability into their businesses and everyday professional lives

The Star and Celebrity Confessional Sean Redmond, 2013-10-18 In this book the different manifestations meanings and processes of the star and celebrity confessional will be explored The confessional is taken to be any moment in which a star celebrity or fan engages in revelatory acts that are considered to be authentic heart felt and honest These confessional encounters can take place in an interview through performance and presentation events online and in unscripted encounters A star may break down in tears or reveal a previously unknown truth about their private life However this authenticity is often found to have been manufactured or is timed to occur against a new release or product launch Alternatively the desire to confess may be seen to draw attention to the centrality of pseudo forms of emotion in contemporary culture and the obsessional behaviour it produces In this book authors consider acts of confession by celebrities such as Tom Cruise Michael Jackson Jade Goody Britney Spears Sarah Jessica Parker Tracey Emin and Russell Crowe Business Today, 2003
