American Independent John Berra,2010 With high profile Academy Award nominations and an increasing number of big name actors eager to sign on to promising projects independent films have been at the forefront in recent years like never before But the roots of such critical and commercial successes as The Hurt Locker and Precious can be traced to the first boom of independent cinema in the 1960s when a raft of talented filmmakers emerged to capture the attention of a rapidly growing audience of young viewers A thorough overview of a thriving area of cultural life Directory of World Cinema American Independent chronicles the rise of the independent sector as an outlet for directors who challenge the status quo yet still produce accessible feature films that not only find wide audiences but enjoy considerable box office appeal without sacrificing critical legitimacy Key directors are interviewed and profiled and a sizeable selection of films are referenced and reviewed More than a dozen sub genres including African American cinema queer cinema documentary familial dysfunction and exploitation are individually considered with an emphasis on their ability to engage with tensions inherent in American society Copious illustrations and a range of research resources round out the volume making this a truly comprehensive guide At a time when independent films are enjoying considerable cultural cachet this easy to use yet authoritative guide will find an eager audience in media historians film studies scholars and movie buffs alike Characterization in American Independent Cinema Michael Newman, 2005 The Bent Lens Lisa Daniel, Claire Jackson, 2014-05-14 The definitive international guide to gay lesbian and queer film and video The Independent Film & Video Monthly, 2001 Me and You and Memento and Fargo J.J. Murphy, 2007-03-15 Within the last twenty five years an enormous burst of creative production has emerged from independent filmmakers From Stranger than Paradise 1984 and Slacker 1991 to Gus Van Sant's Elephant 2003 and Miranda July's Me and You and Everyone We Know 2005 indie cinema has become part of mainstream culture But what makes these films independent Is it simply a matter of budget and production values Or are there aesthetic qualities that set them off from ordinary Hollywood entertainment In this groundbreaking new study J J Murphy argues that the independent feature film from the 1980s to the present has developed a distinct approach of its own centering on new and different conceptions of cinematic storytelling The film script is the heart of the creative originality to be found in the independent movement Even directors noted for their idiosyncratic visual style or the handling of performers typically originate their material and write their own scripts By studying the principles underlying the independent screenplay we gain a direct sense of the originality of this new trend in American cinema Me and You and Memento and Fargo also presents a unique vision for the aspiring screenwriter Most screenwriting manuals and guidebooks on the market rely on formulas believed to generate saleable Hollywood films Many writers present a three act paradigm as gospel and proceed to lay down very stringent rules for characterization plotting timing of climaxes and so on while others who appear to be more open about such rules turn out to be just as inflexible in their advice Through in depth critical analyses of some of the most significant independent films of recent years J J Murphy emphasizes the crucial role that novelty can play in the screenwriting process LGBT Studies and Queer Theory Karen Lovaas, John P. Elia, Gust A. Yep, 2006 This edited work examines the similarities and differences between LGBT studies and queer theory and the uneasy relationship between the two in the academic world 100 Road Movies Jason Wood, 2007-03-31 In 100 Road Movies each entry will offer an insightful critique in terms of aesthetics plot structure and defining formal and thematic features whilst also considering the title in the wider context and understanding of by what criteria a film may be considered a road movie Full credits including year of production principal cast and technical crew and country of origin will also be included at the foot of each entry There will be a selection of illustrative stills approximately twenty five in total The scope is broad a consideration of the elements that gave rise to the road movie sub genre how this sub genre corresponds to other traditional genres the thriller the western etc and how various international countries have adopted the road movie to reflect their cultural social political and geographical identities
