American Literatures Aesthetic Dimensions 2012 07 17:

The Cambridge Companion to Early American Literature Bryce Traister, 2021-11-25 This book introduces readers to early American literary studies through original readings of key literary texts The Art of Retreat Laurel V.

Hankins, 2025-05-13 The political and cultural fantasy of home as a retreat from the pressures of the world first emerged in the U S alongside two major nineteenth century literary movements Romanticism and domestic fiction Upending accepted gendered narratives from this period The Art of Retreat posits that these movements originated from a domestic culture already in transition in which home was frequently a more complicated site of self interested pleasure coerced labor creole social reproduction homosocial intimacy bachelor whimsy petty tyranny racial abuse and transgender capacity The early national periodicals sketches and novels examined here lend themselves to this interpretation Hankins argues that the literary tradition emerging from these decades one that aligned creative genius with domestic retreat reminds us that a politics that appeals to private feeling must reckon with new interpretations of labor kinship and reform in exchange for the promise of consensual citizenship Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press

Whitman's Drift Matt Cohen, 2017-07 The American nineteenth century witnessed a media explosion unprecedented in human history and Walt Whitman's poetry reveled in the potentials of his time See the many cylinder d steam printing press he wrote See the electric telegraph stretching across the Continent from the Western Sea to Manhattan Still as the budding poet learned books neither sell themselves nor move themselves without an efficient set of connections to get books to readers the democratic media saturated future that Whitman imagined would have remained warehoused Whitman's works sometimes ran through the many cylinder d steam printing press and were carried in bulk on the strong and quick locomotive Yet during his career his publications did not follow a progressive path toward mass production and distribution Whitman's Drift asks how the many options for distributing books and newspapers shaped the way writers wrote and readers read Studying nineteenth century literature and how it circulated can help us understand not just how to read Whitman's works and times but how to understand what is happening to our imaginations now in the midst of the twenty first century media explosion from back cover

Jewish Anxiety and the Novels of Philip Roth Brett Ashley Kaplan, 2015-02-26 Jewish Anxiety and the Novels of Philip Roth argues that Roth's novels teach us that Jewish anxiety stems not only from fear of victimization but also from fear of perpetration It is impossible to think about Jewish victimization without thinking about the Holocaust and it is impossible to think about the taboo question of Jewish perpetration without thinking about Israel Roth's texts explore the Israel Palestine question and the Holocaust with varying degrees of intensity but all his novels scrutinize perpetration and victimization through examining racism and sexism in America Brett Ashley Kaplan uses Roth's novels as springboards to illuminate larger problems of victimization and perpetration masculinity femininity and gender racism and anti-Semitism For if as Kaplan argues Jewish anxiety is not only about the fear of oppression and we can begin to see how these anxieties function in terms of fears of perpetration then perhaps we can begin to unpack the complicated dynamics around the line between the Holocaust and Israel Palestine With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl,2024-11-20

With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community American Literature's Aesthetic Dimensions Cindy Weinstein,Christopher Looby,2012-07-17 Rethinking the category of aesthetics in light of recent developments in literary theory and social criticism the contributors to this volume showcase the interpretive possibilities available to those who bring politics culture ideology and conceptions of identity into their critiques Essays combine close readings of individual works and authors with more theoretical discussions of aesthetic theory and its relation to American literature In their introduction Weinstein and Looby argue that aesthetics never left American literary critique Instead the essay casts the current return to aesthetics as the natural consequence of shortcomings in deconstruction and new historicism which led to a reconfiguration of aesthetics Subsequent essays demonstrate the value and versatility of aesthetic considerations in literature from eighteenth century poetry to twentieth century popular music Organized into four groups politics form gender and theory contributors revisit the canonical works of Henry James Nathaniel Hawthorne and Stephen Crane introduce the overlooked texts of Constance Fenimore Woolson and Earl Lind and unpack the complexities of the music of The Carpenters Deeply rooted in an American context these essays explore literature s aesthetic dimensions in connection to American liberty and the formation of political selfhood Contributors include Edward Cahill Ivy G Wilson June Ellison Dorri Beam Christopher Castiglia Christopher Looby Wendy Steiner Cindy Weinstein Trish Loughran Jonathan Freedman Elisa New Dorothy Hale Mary Esteve Eric Lott Sianne Ngai A Gift from the Heart Joyce Henri Robinson,Robert Cozzolino,2013 A Gift from the Heart documents in its entirety what is arguably one of the finest private collections of American art in the country Much of the book comprises thematic essays written by invited scholars who consider the broader sociohistorical context of American art and culture as they delve into the particulars of the collection The Writers Directory ,2013 Whitaker's Book
