Bigfoot Matthew Johnson,2017-04-01 Although the Bigfoot phenomena has fascinated humanity around the world throughout history the Patterson Gimlin film shot in 1967 most certainly caught the world's attention like never before However what most people don't know is that the famous film also kicked off a carefully thought out game plan implemented by the Bigfoot Forest People in order to accomplish a life saving agenda Regarding the Bigfoot Forest People there are never any accidents They do everything with intention and purpose On July 1 2000 Dr Matthew A Johnson and his family encountered a Bigfoot on the mountain above the Oregon Caves National Park Since that world famous encounter occurred Dr Johnson spent sixteen years of his life pursuing the Bigfoot Forest People with persistence and relentless commitment He transitioned from an aggressive Old School paparazzi money shot researcher to a habituator and on to an interactionist Bigfoot A Fifty Year Journey Come Full Circle ties several stories and experiences together to help explain who the Bigfoot Forest People are where they come from and why they're here In short there is no other Bigfoot book out this like this one You are one hundred percent guaranteed that this book will overwhelm you with the truth and promises to blow your mind in the process The Bigfoot research community is going to change in a major positive direction Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1992 The Next Exit Next Exit Inc,Next Exit, Incorporated, The,2001-02

Pass, Oregon - 2014 Joan Momsen,2015-01-27 As mentioned in the other volumes this is not a history book although it is published by the Josephine County Historical Society It is a book of just current photographs The JCHS is a non governmental non profit corporation and we get most of our operating funds from the generosity of the community through donations membership and bequeaths We continually have to come up with ways to raise money so we can collect and preserve the history of Josephine County One way is what you see here Publication of books about the history and in this case the future history of the area is one way we raise operations funds The idea of just taking photos of the way Grants Pass looked in 2014 came about because in other publications it was observed that the Society does not have photos of all the old buildings when they were first constructed Hopefully in decades from now this series of little publications will give insight and photos of what the town looked like in 2014 It may also give local owners of buildings the impetus to give us their old photos of their buildings instead of just filing them or throwing them out Although this is the 5th volume of The Streets of Grants Pass it has the longest time span of when the photos were taken Most were taken in March 2014 but a few were taken in December 2014 Of the first five books printed this is the only one that has photos taken by others than the author Jesse Van Cleave and Severin Burri used two different cameras to take many of the photos The photos taken with the GoPro camera give a different perspective of some of the buildings Remember this is just a picture book of the buildings of 2014 E and F Streets to the Parkway were original streets but not very commercial for years before they were extended east to connect with the I 5 freeway in the 1960s So some of the buildings have been there for decades and were built toward the end of the streets Now they are surrounded by newer buildings Maybe some of these older buildings have childhood memories for those who use to explore the streets that ended in a dead end     Glimpse of Grants Pass, Oregon Lottie L. Tillotson,1901*

The Streets of Grants Pass, Oregon - 2014 Joan Momsen,2015-01-07 This is not a history although it is published by the Josephine County Historical Society Today tomorrow and even yesterday fade from memory quickly Recently when looking for photos of Grants Pass from the 1880s and 1890s and then even from the 1980s and 1990s I discovered that none could be found of many of the places I remember as a child Common everyday buildings were not photographed or if they were nobody bothered to give the photos to the Historical Society for future reference Yes there are many photos some wonderful memories of days gone by but there are many more gaps in our photographic history This book covers 7th Street from the Evelyn Avenue to the I 5 freeway Until the late 1950s 7th Street was not a primary street in Grants Pass It extended from M Street to about Savage Street When the second bridge was built Highway 99 was no longer just 6th Street 6th Street became the southbound portion of Hwy 99 through Grants Pass and 7th Street was the northbound portion of Hwy 99 Within a decade the freeway I 5 opened and Grants Pass was no longer on the main highway At the end of this book there are some of my memories of Hwy 99

The Streets of Grants Pass, Oregon - 2014 Joan Momsen,2014-09-06 This is not a history book nor is it a book of historical photos However as the years pass it will become history As the photographer and author of this the first in a series of books about the streets of Grants Pass I feel the reason for such an undertaking needs to be explained and that is to simply record what the buildings looked like in 2014 At the end of the 19th Century Grants Pass became a small city It existed in name from 1864 when it got its first post office Therefore this book of streets celebrates the 150 year of the name Grants Pass The post office was in a private home and by no means indicated there was a town Grants Pass was a community of wide spread farms with the nearest post office at Rock Point Gold Hill area 17 miles from what is now downtown Grants Pass This is a picture book There are few comments It just shows how North 6th Street in Grants Pass Oregon looked in 2014
