Avengers Age Of Ultron Jarvis Vision:

Migration, Diaspora, Exile Daniel Stein,Cathy C. Waegner,Geoffroy de Laforcade,Page R. Laws,2020-05-27 Migration is the most volatile sociopolitical issue of our time as the current escalation of discourse and action in the United States and Europe concerning walls border security refugee camps and deportations indicates The essays by the international and interdisciplinary group of scholars assembled in this volume offer critical filters suggesting that this escalation and its historical precedents do not preclude redemptive counterstrategies Encoded in narratives of affiliation and escape these counterstrategies are variously launched as literary cinematic and civic interventions in past and present constructions of diasporic migratory or exilic identities The essays trace these narratives through the figure of the exile as it moves across times borders and genres transmogrifying into the fugitive the escapee the refugee the nomad the Other Arguing that narratives and figures of migration to and in Europe and the Americas share tropes that link migration to kinship community refuge and hegemony the volume identifies a transhistorical transcultural and transnational common ground for experiences of mediated diaspora migration and exile at a time when public discourse and policy making emphasize borders divisions and violent confrontations
