

The background of the slide features two American Airlines aircraft in flight. The top plane is a white jet with the airline's name and logo on its side, and its tail is decorated with the classic American flag stripes. The bottom plane is a larger, dark-colored jet, also with the airline's name and logo, and a similar striped tail. They are flying over a body of water under a clear blue sky. A dark horizontal band is positioned behind the text.
