Confessions of a Credit Junkie Beverly Harzog, 2013-11-25 Credit card expert Beverly Harzog shares how she went from being a credit card disaster to a credit card diva. When Beverly got out of college she spent the next 10 years racking up debt on seven credit cards. Credit card limits she believed were merely guidelines certainly not anything to be taken seriously especially if she was in dire need of a new pair of shoes. The fact that she was a CPA at the time adds an ironic twist to the credit quagmire she slowly descended into. In Confessions of a Credit Junkie Beverly candidly details her own credit card mishaps and offers easy to follow advice often with a touch of Southern humor to help others avoid them. In this much needed book you will learn how to use the Credit Card Personality Quiz to choose the right credit cards. The seven ways to use a credit card to rebuild credit. How to get out of debt using a balance transfer credit card and pay zero interest while doing it. Credit card strategies to save a bundle on groceries gas and more. Anyone in debt will benefit from the down to earth practical tips Beverly offers.

Mass Affluence Paul Nunes, Brian Johnson, 2004 This is the first book to explain how the fundamentals of marketing strategy must change in response to this broad based increase in wealth. The authors specifically addresses how to fine tune a mass marketing approach that captures the value created from greater consumer affluence. After years of expensive and largely ineffective attempts at one to one marketing and other complex varieties of microsegmentation the business environment is ripe for a switch back to the relative simplicity of a mass marketing mindset. Flouts conventional wisdom the authors in depth research uncovered that today's moneyed masses are completely different than the mass market of decades past in terms of how much they have to spend and what they are willing to spend it on. Reveals the mass marketing strategies a range of companies have already successfully used to hit pay dirt with products ranging from oral care to laundry detergent to exotic automobiles.
