

The background of the image features a stylized American flag with a large bald eagle perched on top of the stars. The stars are white and arranged in a grid pattern on a blue field. The eagle is dark with its wings spread, and its talons are gripping a small branch. The red and white stripes of the flag are visible on the right side.

American Haiku Fifty Stars Fifty States Plus The District Of Columbia:

American Haiku John Ross Jr., 2012-02 American Haiku Fifty Stars Fifty States plus the District of Columbia is a bountiful collection of over six hundred haiku thirteen for each state highlighting the geographical splendor of our spacious American landscape. In this vast collection John Ross venerates the official flowers trees birds and state capitals and mottos as well along with distinguishing wildlife in conjunction with the natural land and water formations common to each state. Choosing a precise triptych lined horizontal approach governed by a customary 5 7 5 syllabic pattern Ross has created haiku with a time honored sensibility toward Zen brevity and spirituality. Utilizing colorful bold language he seems to evoke a sense of meditative petition toward his overall construal of America's natural wonders one perhaps best exemplified by Theodore Roosevelt when after camping in Yosemite National Park wrote It was like lying in a great solemn cathedral far vaster and more beautiful than any built by the hand of man. As you read this new volume of American Haiku may you come to value more fully America's true grandeur as exemplified by her valleys canyons buttes rivers lakes volcanoes geysers and other striking innate wonders found in her cities national parks and designated forest preserves Publishers Directory, 1990
