Welcome to the help for 18 Wheels of Steel - American Long Haul

18 Wheels of Steel - American Long Haul is the most realistic trucking simulation to date. In addition to haulin' your own cargoes between 44 different cities, you have complete control over your own trucking business - you can buy trucks and trailers to expand your fleet, hire and fire drivers, and decide which contracts to take and which to leave. You can monitor and control your business as closely as you want - find out where your vehicles and drivers are and what they are doing, transport your vehicles between cities, or just leave your drivers to do their job and read a log of their activities in the company journal.
