    Autonomy in Language Learning Jo Mynard,CAROL J. EVERHARD,Richard Smith,2018-05-14 This volume contains a collection of articles articles which were written in connection with an IATEFL LASIG project which likened exploring the multifaceted concept of learner autonomy to opening a metaphorical can of worms This book is an essential resource for anyone interested in the field of language learner autonomy   Reforming the Foreign Language Classroom: Empowering Learners to Take Ownership Katja Heim,Leni Dam,Annika Albrecht,Carmen Becker,2025-12-20 How can language teachers create classrooms where students truly take ownership of their learning Reforming the Foreign Language Classroom Empowering Learners to Take Ownership explores this question through powerful examples of theory informed practice and classroom innovation Inspired by the pioneering work of Leni Dam and her collaborators the book calls for a fundamental rethinking of language education one that supports learner autonomy inclusion and intrinsic motivation Drawing on international research and real world classroom stories it demonstrates that reform is not only necessary but already happening across diverse contexts This volume brings together leading voices in language education to examine what it takes to empower learners and teachers alike The chapters address autonomy from multiple perspectives understanding the learner s agency supporting teachers in fostering autonomy and showcasing practical autonomy supportive classroom models Whether you are a teacher researcher or policymaker this book provides both inspiration and concrete guidance for transforming the foreign language classroom into a space where every learner can grow with confidence creativity and purpose   Current Issues in Language Evaluation, Assessment and Testing Christine Coombe,Christina Gitsaki,2016-03-08 Current Issues in Language Evaluation Assessment and Testing Research and Practice is a collection of research papers most of which were presented at the 17th World Congress of the International Association of Applied Linguistics AILA which was held in 2014 in Brisbane Australia The volume comprises 15 chapters presenting current research projects and discussing issues related to language testing and the development of language assessment instruments in a variety of contexts around the world This anthology will be of use to both new and seasoned researchers within the field of Applied Linguistics and TESOL Teacher educators language teachers and language assessment professionals will find this volume equally useful as the papers present current trends in testing and evaluation

    ICT-Based Assessment, Methods, and Programs in Tertiary Education Meri Yilan, Serpil,Koruyan, Kasim,2020-04-17 The use of information and communication technologies ICTs in education has revolutionized learning Shifting beyond traditional mode of education the integration of ICTs has become an advantage for students at tertiary education when used for the right purpose to enhance learning The use of technology brings forth a flexible and accessible mode of education and bridges the gap of learning across borders This enables students at tertiary level to have access to other universities and academic resource materials globally thereby expanding their knowledge Thus it is crucial to consider the development of technology in education as part of a comprehensive pedagogical framework and take into account new developments in ICTs ICT Based Assessment Methods and Programs in Tertiary Education is an essential research publication that provides relevant theoretical frameworks and recent empirical research findings on integrating ICTs in tertiary education to enhance learning and allow students to take more control of their learning Highlighting topics such as assessment language learning and e learning this book is ideal for teachers professionals academicians researchers administrators curriculum designers instructional designers and students The Routledge Handbook of Language Learning and Teaching Beyond the Classroom Hayo Reinders,Chun Lai,Pia Sundqvist,2022-05-30 Informal language learning beyond the classroom plays an important and growing role in language learning and teaching This Handbook brings together the existing body of research and unites the various disciplines that have explored this area in order to present the current state of knowledge in one accessible resource Much of adult learning takes place outside of formal education and for language learning it is likely that out of class experiences play an equally important role It is therefore surprising that the role of informal language learning has received little attention over the years with the vast majority of research instead focusing on the classroom Researchers from a range of backgrounds however have started to realise the important contribution of informal language learning both in its own right and in its relationship with classroom learning Studies in the areas of learner autonomy learning strategies study abroad language support learners voices computer mediated communication mobile assisted language learning digital gaming and many others all add to our understanding of the complex and intersecting ways in which learners construct their own language learning experiences drawing from a wide range of resources including materials teachers self study technology other learners and native speakers This Handbook provides a sound and comprehensive basis for researchers and graduate students to build upon in their own research of language learning and teaching beyond the classroom

Reflective Dialogue Satoko Kato,Jo Mynard,2015-07-16 Reflective Dialogue presents professional educators with the necessary background and skills to engage in reflective dialogue with language learners effectively It draws on work in the fields of advising in language learning reflective practice sociocultural theory language learner autonomy counseling and life coaching to provide both an introduction to the field and guidance for researching advising in action The book also includes a wide variety of practical ideas and over 30 sample dialogues that offer clear demonstrations of the concepts discussed in practice This dynamic textbook s practical approach illustrates how reflective dialogue can promote language learner autonomy and how language advising can be implemented successfully both inside and outside the classroom British Education Index ,2002 Just Another Ape? Helene Guldberg,2010 This book argues to the contrary that animals are more like humans that humans are indeed unique and that the evidence for apes having human like mental capacities is weak and getting weaker Annual Meeting Program - American Educational Research Association American Educational Research Association,1997 Annual Meeting Program American Educational Research Association,1998 The Maccabæan ,1918 Autonomy and Independence in Language Learning Phil Benson,Peter Voller,2014-06-06 The topics of autonomy and independence play an increasingly important role in language education They raise issues such as learners responsibility for their own learning and their right to determine the direction of their own learning the skills which can be learned and applied in self directed learning and capacity for independent learning and the extents to which this can be suppressed by institutional education This volume offers new insights into the principles of autonomy and independence and the practices associated with them focusing on the area of EFL teaching The editors introduction provides the context and outlines the main issues involved in autonomy and independence Later chapters discuss the social and political implications of autonomy and independence and their effects on educational structures The consequences for the design of learner centred materials and methods is discussed together with an exploration of the practical ways of implementing autonomy and independence in language teaching and learning Each section of the book opens with an introduction to give structure to the development of ideas and themes with synopses to highlight salient features in the text and help build upon the material of previous chapters The Maccabaean ,1919 Chicago Independent ,1894 The Near East ,1916 Great Britain and the East ,1916 New York's Food and Life Sciences Bulletin ,1970 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1992 Chamber's Encyclopaedia ,1963 The Philosopher's Index ,2006 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts
