Interiors in the Era of Covid-19 Penny Sparke,Ersi Ioannidou,Pat Kirkham,Stephen Knott,Jana Scholze,2023-01-26 The Covid 19 lockdowns caused people worldwide to be confined to their homes for longer and on a greater scale than ever before This forced many unprecedented changes to the way we treat domestic space as relationships shifted between the public and the private worlds and homes were rapidly adapted to accommodate the additional roles of schools offices gyms restaurants making spaces and more Above all our understanding of the home as a site to support and enhance the well-being of its inhabitants changed in a variety of novel ways Interiors in the Era of Covid is a collection of essays which explore the complex ways in which our inside spaces contemporary and historical have responded to Covid 19 and other human crises With case studies ranging from US and Europe to Japan China Colombia and Bangladesh this is a truly global work which examines wide ranging subjects from home working and home technologies to the impact of lockdown on people's identities gender roles in the home and the realities of domestic living with Covid in

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000-06 Photography and Doubt Sabine T. Kriebel,Andrés Mario Zervigón,2016-11-25 Recent decades have seen photography s privileged relationship to the real come under question Spurred by the postmodern critique of photography in the 1980s and the rise of digital technologies soon thereafter scholars have been asking who and what built this understanding of the medium in the first place Photography and Doubt reflects on this interest in photography s referential power by discussing it in rigorously historical terms How was the understanding of photographic realism cultivated in the first place What do cases of staged and manipulated photography reveal about that realism s hold on audiences across the medium s history Have doubts about photography s testimonial power stimulated as much knowledge as its realism Edited by Sabine T Kriebel and Andr s Mario Zervig n Photography and Doubt is the first multi authored collection specifically designed to explore these questions Its 13 original essays illustrated with 73 color images explore cases when the link between the photographic image and its referent was placed under stress and when photography was as attuned to its myth making capabilities as to its claims to authenticity Photography and Doubt will serve as a valuable resource for students and scholars in art history visual and media studies philosophy and the history of science and technology
