Apple Store Evergreen Walk:

Oh My! What a Life! Sharon Terry, 2010-11 Sharon Terry tells the story of her family's struggle to escape poverty at the end of the Great Depression and how she became a registered nurse married divorced remarried happily for forty years raised four successful sons and overcame two separate cancers and two heart attacks. She was the youngest member of a family of seven children. Her beloved father died when she was nine years old leaving her mother desperately providing for and holding together her family. Sharon describes her small town life in southern Indiana and her life as a teenager on a large farm outside the small Indiana farm community of Poseyville. Leaving southern Indiana for Indianapolis she attends nurses training works hard and frolics some becoming a registered nurse. She marries and then discovers the sorrows of her failed marriage and her difficulties and joys raising three young boys as a single parent. Then she entered her happy forty year marriage to her second husband. They move to Carmel Indiana where she has her fourth son. She recounts how the new family bonded how the sons were educated and given tough love became successful married and produced eight grandchildren. She describes how she coped with two cancers and two heart attacks showing the same strength endurance courage and good nature that her mother earlier showed through years of near poverty. Finally she introduces the grandchildren and shows that there will be a future and that it will be good.
