Resources in Education ,1980 The E-Assessment Handbook Geoffrey Crisp,2007-09-05 Assessing learning in an online environment is being used by teachers and institutions at an increasing rate This text provides practical guidance on various aspects of online assessment including types of assessment choosing the right software and examples of e assessments over a wide variety of disciplines Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge motivation tools and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks. Mazungumzo Bernth Lindfors, 1980
