O'Donnell, 2012-11-22 A detailed commentary on the Confessions of Augustine in three volumes A revised Latin text of the Confessions appears in Volume I and forms the basis for a detailed line by line commentary Volumes II III designed to elucidate the many layers of meaning in the work Augustine's Confessions William E. Mann, 2006-03-09 The philosopher in the crib William E Mann Word learning and theory of mind Paul Bloom Augustine on the teacher within Gareth B Matthews Petit larceny the beginning of all sin Augustine's theft of the pears Scott MacDonald Augustine on evil and original sin William E Mann The divine nature Scott MacDonald Suffering love Nicholas Wolterstorff Augustine's griefs Paul Helm God's speaking and Augustine's conversion Nicholas Wolterstorff On being morally responsible in a dream Ishtiyaque Haji The book of memory Garry Wills Time mysticism and creation Richard Sorabji Augustine the Reader Brian Stock, 2009-06-30 Stock displays an enviable and intimate knowledge of the text of Augustine above all of his Confessions and as the book progresses of the De Trinitate Augustine on Memory Kevin G. Grove, 2021 Augustine of Hippo indisputably one of the most important figures for the study of memory is credited with establishing memory as the inner source of selfhood and locus of the search for God Yet those who study memory in Augustine have never before taken into account his preaching His sermons are the sources of memory's greatest development for Augustine In Augustine's preaching especially on the Psalms the interior gives way to communal exterior Both the self and search for God are re-established in a shared Christological identity and the communal labors of remembering and forgetting This book opens with Augustine's early works and Confessions as the beginning of memory and concludes with Augustine's Trinity and preaching on Psalm 50 as the end of memory The heart of the book the work of memory sets forth how ongoing remembering and forgetting in Christ are for Augustine are foundational to the life of grace To that end Augustine and his congregants go leaping in memory together keep festival with abiding traces and become forgetful runners like St Paul Remembering and forgetting in Christ the ongoing work of memory prove for Augustine to be actions of reconciliation of the distended experiences of human life of praising and groaning labouring and resting solitude and communion Augustine on Memory presents this new communal and Christological paradigm not only for Augustinian studies but also for theologians philosophers ethicists and interdisciplinary scholars of memory Augustine in His Own Words Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 2010 Draws on the writings of Augustine to offer insight into his life as a bishop preacher philosopher and politician Augustine and Tradition David G. Hunter, Jonathan P. Yates, 2021-11-23 An indispensable resource for those looking to understand Augustine's place in religious and cultural heritage Augustine towers over Western life literature and culture both sacred and secular His ideas permeate conceptions of the self from birth to death and have cast a long shadow over subsequent Christian thought But as much as tradition has sprung from Augustinian roots so was Augustine a product of and interlocutor with traditions that preceded and ran contemporary to his life This extensive volume examines and evaluates Augustine as both a receiver and a source of tradition. The contributors all distinguished Augustinian scholars influenced by J. Patout Burns and interested in furthering his intellectual legacy survey Augustine's life and writings in the context of North African tradition, philosophical and literary traditions of antiquity, the Greek patristic tradition and the tradition of Augustine's Latin contemporaries. These various pieces when assembled tell a comprehensive story of Augustine's significance both then and now. Contributors: Alden Bass, Michael Cameron, John C. Cavadini, Thomas Clemons, Stephen A. Cooper, Theodore de Bruyn, Mark DelCogliano, Geoffrey D. Dunn, John Peter Kenney, Brian Matz, Andrew McGowan, William Tabbernee, Joseph W. Trigg, Dennis Trout and James R. Wetzel.

From Texts to Bodies Jacqueline Murray, 2025-04-24. From Texts to Bodies: Sexes, Genders, and Sexualities in Premodern Europe reflects the historiographical changes to the study of women, gender, and sexuality in premodern Europe across the 1990s into the 2010s. Developing from post Baby Boom interest in marriage and the family subsequently inspired by feminist theory and cultural studies, scholars turned their gaze to the wider field of sex and gender. Using an interdisciplinary methodology and a broad cross section of medieval primary sources, these articles trace the evolution of medieval studies from the family through women and gender to focus on sex and sexuality, concluding with critical analyses of men, masculinity, and male embodiment. Part I focuses on medieval women within the context of marriage, family, and the church, and reveals new approaches to recovering women's experiences. The articles sit at the transition point between recuperative women's history and critical gender history. Part II uses an interdisciplinary lens to examine the body, sex, and sexuality, and the intersections of sex, sexualities, and genders. The innovative articles in Part III comprise the foundations for the critical analysis of premodern men, masculinity, embodiment, and male sexuality. Together, these studies demonstrate the expansion of research from the examination of theoretical texts to the analysis of bodies as lived experience. This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of premodern marriage, genders, sexualities, and embodiment, as well as those interested in the social and religious contexts of premodern society. Clear and accessible, this volume also provides an introduction and overview for readers with a broad interest in the Middle Ages.
