

Alison Lester

Alison was born in Australia in 1952 in a small coastal town in South Gippsland. She grew up on a farm overlooking the sea. She first rode a horse in her father's arms when she was just a tiny baby.

Alison went to Teachers College in Melbourne and trained as a Secondary Art Teacher. She loved teaching and art but didn't enjoy the time and routine of school, so she was keen to find a different and more creative job. Alison decided to be a Mum who worked from home when her children were young. She contacted a publishing company, begged them for a job, and sent through her art portfolio. Alison says she is so grateful for the women there who saw her potential and gave her her first illustrating job.

Alison has been an illustrator for over 40 years. She spent five years illustrating other people's books. She found herself being critical and thought she could write an even better book. She went to task and wrote her first book called Chew Eats Alligators. It was what kick-started her career as an author as well as an illustrator.

After writing an adult memoir, Alison published her first novel in 1997. It was called The Secretive Pig. It was her first book written by her illustrating her own words and this publication won the 1998 Victorian Premier's Book Prize for Young Adults. Alison says the title of her most recent picture book is It's a Pig's Life.

Alison has written a series of picture books with her writing life. She includes a lot of regular fun in her children's books. She also wants to share her love for writing with lots of others, so she writes lots of short stories for schools.

As well as being a busy author, Alison illustrated a range of community projects. She often travels to schools and preschools to read her books and encourage others to write and read about their lives. Alison is also an ambassador for a literacy learning program. Her writing is an inspiration for the Language Learning Program, the Victorian Early Childhood Project. Alison Lester: The Chew Crew supports and the Language Project.
