Beyond al-Qaeda: Part 1, The Global Jihadist Movement Angel Rabasa, Peter Chalk, Kim Cragin, Sara A. Daly, Heather S. Gregg, 2006 Examines al Qaeda's evolution and the emergence of the broader global jihadist movement groups affiliated, associated or inspired by al Qaeda and the threat that they pose to the United States and U.S. allies and interests. The authors conclude by setting out a four-pronged strategy to counter the jihadist threat Beyond Al-Qaeda. Part 1. The Global Jihadist Movement, 2006 Defeating the global jihadist movement which we define as al Qaeda and the universe of jihadist groups that are associated with or inspired by al Qaeda is the most pressing security challenge facing the United States today. The global jihadist movement can be distinguished from traditional or local jihads which are armed campaigns conducted by Islamist groups against local adversaries with usually limited aims and geographic scope in that it targets the United States and its allies across the globe and pursues broad geopolitical aims. Although the U.S. campaign against al Qaeda and the global jihadist movement campaign has had some notable successes such as the destruction of al Qaeda's sanctuary in Afghanistan, the elimination of many of the group's leaders and the growing resolve of many countries to take action against al Qaeda and its associates, no informed observers believe that al Qaeda will be eliminated anytime soon. The United States itself continues to be threatened by large-scale attacks as suggested by heightened security alerts and reports of plans to attack financial targets in New York and Washington. Countering al Qaeda is thus likely to preoccupy U.S. national security institutions for at least the remainder of the decade and perhaps longer. This study explores some of the most salient aspects associated with terrorist phenomena across the world and their implications for the security of the United States and its friends and allies. The results of the study are reported in two volumes. The subject of this first volume is al Qaeda and what we refer to as the al Qaeda nebula, an ecosystem of terrorist groups around the world that have internalized the al Qaeda worldview and its methodology of mass-casualty terrorist attacks Religious Ideology and the Roots of the Global Jihad J. Turner, 2014-08-26 The events of 9/11 prompted questions as to the origins, nature and purpose of international jihadist organisations. In particular, why had they chosen to target the US and the West in general? Turner's book provides a unique, holistic insight into these debates, taking into account historical perceptions and ideology as key factors.

The Globalization of World Politics John Baylis, Steve Smith, Patricia Owens, 2014 Working from a unique non-U.S. perspective, this market-leading text provides a coherent, accessible and engaging introduction to the globalization of world politics. Now in its sixth edition, The Globalization of World Politics has been fully revised and updated in light of recent developments in world politics FEATURES Presents contributions from an impressive line up of international experts each of whom provides accessible but stimulating insights into history theory structures processes and other key issues in the field Offers a visually appealing full color interior Provides a strong pedagogical program that includes numerous boxes figures tables maps questions lively examples and case studies

Strategic Interaction Between Islamist Terror Groups Nina Ismael,2020-11-10

This book applies game theory to the phenomenon of terrorism and investigates how the competition for support can influence the attack behavior of terror organizations In addition it examines the economics of terrorism The so called outbidding theory which has become increasingly popular within the field of terrorism research argues that terror groups vying for resources will engage in more and more violence to demonstrate their capabilities and commitment to their cause This book challenges the outbidding concept by providing a game theoretical analysis which shows that a contest between two terror groups can be interpreted as a race for support This interpretation may help explain why major attacks occur at all not as a result of outbidding but as a result of losing the race In addition the author shows that rivalry between terror groups does not necessarily lead to more attacks but can result in less terrorism due to an increased probability of attack failure induced by the race Lastly the model is applied to the rivalry between al Qaeda and Daesh elaborated on with empirical evidence Given its scope the book is a must read for researches and scholars working in the fields of economics politics the social sciences and military history as well as military and political decision makers and authorities working in the field of risk management

Beyond Al-Qaeda: The outer rings of the terrorist universe Angel Rabasa,2006 This book examines terrorist groups that while not formally allied with al Qaeda pose a threat to Americans at home and abroad and to the security of our friends and allies

Ten Years After 9/11 Arabinda Acharya,2013 Ten years after the 9 11 attacks this book reassesses the effectiveness of the War on Terror considers how al Qaeda and other jihadist movements are faring explores the impact of wider developments in the Islamic world such as the Arab Spring and discusses whether all this suggests that a new approach to containing international especially jihadist terrorism is needed Among the book s many richly argued conclusions are that the War on Terror and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq have brutalised the United States that the jihadist threat is not one but rather a wide range of separate unconnected struggles and that al Qaeda s ideology contains the seeds of its own destruction in that although many Muslims are content to see the United States worsted they do not approve of al Qaeda s violence and are not taken in by the jihadists empty promises of utopia

Ethnic Identity and National Conflict in China A. Acharya,R. Gunaratna,W. Pengxin,2010-06-21 While not discounting the potency of the radical Islamic religious discourse in fuelling the contemporary wave of terrorism this book makes an attempt to explain terrorism in China as an ethno nationalist conflict rooted in issues involving minority identity However a largely domestic conflict is being hijacked by the radical Islamists

Contending with Terrorism Michael E. Brown,Owen R. Cote, Jr.,Sean M. Lynn-Jones,Steven E. Miller,2010-07-09 Experts explore the sources of contemporary terrorism what terrorists want and how the United States and other countries should respond Since the attacks of September 11 2001 scholars and policy analysts in national security have turned their attention to terrorism considering not only how to prevent future attacks but also the roots of the problem This book offers some of the latest research in terrorism studies The contributors examine the sources of contemporary terrorism discussing the impact of globalization the influence of religious beliefs and the increasing dissatisfaction felt by the world s powerless They consider the strategies and motivations of terrorists offering contending perspectives on whether or not terrorists can be said to achieve their goals explore different responses to the threat of terrorism discussing such topics as how the United States can work more effectively with its allies and contemplate the future of al Qaida asking if its networked structure is an asset or a liability The essays in Contending with Terrorism address some of the central topics in the analysis of contemporary terrorism They promise to guide future policy and inspire further research into one of most important security issues of the twenty first century Contributors Max Abrahms Daniel Byman Erica Chenoweth Audrey Kurth Cronin Ren e de Nevers Mette Eilstrup Sangiovanni Hillel Frisch Calvert Jones Andrew Kydd Sean M Lynn Jones Elizabeth McClellan Nicholas Miller Assaf Moghadam Michael Mousseau Rysia Murphy William Rose Paul Staniland Robert Trager Barbara Walter Dessimlava Zagorcheva

Papers Kanada Commission of Inquiry into Investigation of the Bombing of Air India Flight 182,2010 Simple Models to Explore Deterrence and More General Influence in the War with Al-Qaeda Paul K. Davis,2010 Deterring terrorism is best approached as part of a broad effort to influence all elements of a terrorist system and simple conceptual models of decisionmaking can help in understanding how to affect others behavior The paper lays out a theory of how to use influence to affect elements of a terrorist system touching on root causes individual motivation public support and likely factors in the decisionmaking of terrorist organizations The Serpent in Our Garden Brian M. Drinkwine,2009 The terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 9 11 caused Americans to realize that our sense of invincibility had been shattered This paper will identify Al Qaida and Salafi Jihadists as our enemy and will recommend new approaches to fighting terrorism Colonel Brian Drinkwater will explore Al Qaida s organization leaders doctrine and their radical ideologies It is argued that the war we must fight is one against Islamist transnational actors who openly engage in terrorism or support terrorism It will highlight that our current national and military strategies to combat terrorism are inadequate to take on an ideologically emboldened transnational foe It is emphasized that we must refocus our efforts and prepare to fight a war of several generations long war and several initiatives will be recommended to include development of a cogent grand national strategy These recommendations are intended to assist future planners in the development of a grand national strategy and an integrated long war campaign plan aimed directly at Al Qaida the Al Qaida associated movement and Islamist terrorists and executed through the application of diplomatic informational military and economic instruments of national power by an unified interagency effort in coordination with our multinational partners international governmental and non governmental
