

and the 1990s. Although the environmental movement has been the driving force behind the growth of environmentalism, the movement has also been influenced by other factors, such as economic globalization, technological advancements, and changes in public opinion. The environmental movement has also faced challenges, including political opposition, economic interests, and social divisions. The movement has had a significant impact on environmental policy, leading to the establishment of environmental agencies, the implementation of environmental regulations, and the promotion of environmental awareness and action. The environmental movement has also influenced other social movements, such as the anti-globalization movement and the women's movement. The environmental movement has been a powerful force for change, and its influence continues to be felt in the 21st century.
