Children's Stories with authors commentary. upward beyond the brim Ruby L. Agnir, 2012-08-31. As Ruby Agnir continues to be spiritually inspired by events in her life, she writes down every thought or paragraph with the intent of sharing it with others. This book is a collection of those ideas, some serious, some lyrical, some wild, mostly spiritual, all utterly human. The title is self-explanatory. Like coffee poured into a cup to overflowing, the thoughts go beyond the brim but rather than drop down because of gravity, they go upward, unfettered, rising like a vapor and blending with the space above. They are the author's Thoughts outside the Box. These are Ruby Agnir's beliefs, concepts, notions, and inferences gleaned from readings and experiences and collected from books, from newspapers, from the silver screen, from the Internet; she has chosen those that are relevant to her way of thinking, rolled them up into a ball, and stamped it with her own identifying mark. Beyond Bounds Tunji Olugbesan, 2001. Beyond the Trial Chigozie Anuli Mbadugha, 2015-02-06. Beyond the Trial is a collection of three fictional stories: Erased, Reproach, Rude Awakening, and Shadows from the Past. It tells the story of three African women who faced several challenges in their lives: unwanted pregnancy, early widowhood, domestic abuse, and rejection. They chose to turn their setbacks into stepping stones and their trials into testimonies. They exhibited strength of character, resilience, and a determination to succeed in spite of all the odds they faced. It is a must-read for teenagers, young adults, teachers, parents, and grandparents. It is highly educative and entertaining, with crucial moral values highlighted. Join Funke Nkechi and Ada as they wade through their individual trials to find love, reconciliation, forgiveness, restoration, and lasting peace. There should be a copy in every home. It is an ideal gift item for youths. Beyond Words Susan Benedict, Lenore Carlisle, 1992. Teachers from first grade through high school detail how they have used picture books in reading and writing classrooms. Beyond the Gaslight Hilary Evans, Dik Evans, 1977. Beyond Baptism Elaine Cannon, 1994. Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying, 1995. Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying David Walter Adams, Eleanor J. Deveau, 1995. Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us. Yet today's society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unrelenting joy and freedom. Unfortunately, the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet, the terminal illness of their parent, their own struggle with life-threatening disease, the accidental death of their sibling, or the suicide of a friend. The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty. Unfortunately, our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents
