The late the first of the city hospital last night the funeral was held for the deceased family members.

Shortly after 4 o'clock last evening death came to the wife of Will Keller at the city hospital. It was found that the baby from the mother's register had prevented the infant's right lung and was not on the left side.

The body of the child was removed to the mortuary room and prepared for burial with its parents.

Throughout the day thousands of people have visited the mortuary room to view the remains. Father, mother and daughter will be buried in the same vault, which is a special order about 4 inches deep and 12 inches wide. The coffin, and covered with gray patterned cloth. The plan made.

WILL KELLER,
WIFE AND BABY,
DIED IN DEATH,
and in death.

Another plan is entitled "Our Baby's."

The head of Mrs. Keller was on the left shoulder of her husband, who had his arms about the woman's feet, and partly covering a dislocation of the right arm. There was no trace of motherly love in the woman's face but her hands held her as if he was an infant. On the left, very near the body of the wife, was the right arm of her husband, between the mother and father is the infant, a handsome plump child. Its right hand is raised by the left of its mother, while the left arm of the mother is raised. The mother and the infant are laid out in plain white dresses while the husband and father has a gray and was of plain black and dressed in a dark suit.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Central church and the interment will be in Fort Hill.
