their organization as real and suggests that they ought to be taken as such. Consequently the success of an organization's diversity efforts is contingent on the attention it pays to the perceptions that its members hold not only about human difference but also about issues of diversity within their organization. It is only when members' perceptions are determined that organizations should proceed to employ diversity programs. Phenomenol Rhetoric Commun CB (Current Continental Research) Deetz, 1981. Fourth International Conference on Minority Languages: General papers Durk Gorter, 1990.
