Scales on Censorship Pat R. Scales,2015-04-14 Pat Scales has been a passionate advocate for intellectual freedom long before she launched the Scales on Censorship column with School Library Journal in 2006 Decades of experience as a school librarian informs her ongoing work on these important and often volatile issues as did her tenure in leadership roles on the American Library Association s Intellectual Freedom Committee and at the Freedom To Read Foundation It also earned her a place among the inaugural list of Library Journal s Movers Shakers in 2002 Since her first column for SLJ she has been in an ongoing conversation of sorts with librarians teachers and parents a much needed conversation This collection of the wide ranging questions from readers and Scales informative answers are gathered in broad thematic groups to help readers explore the all too daily reality of confronting efforts to censor ban or otherwise limit open and ready access to materials in our schools and libraries They were all written in response to active book challenges or questions of intellectual freedom and library ethics These columns have a ripped from the headlines immediacy even as they reflect the core values and policies of librarianship They are organized by topic and each is framed with a brief new introductory essay Scales powerful reputation and practical ethically based solutions has made her a key spokesperson and support for librarians working under a censorship siege Her passionate unwavering voice provides valuable strategic and tactical approaches to censorship fine tuned insight into individual books often challenged and critical moral support for managing trying conversations Scales is focused throughout on fostering a culture that embraces and understands the importance of intellectual freedom and the tools to make it a reality every day in our libraries schools and communities Learn from her to build a background in the ethics involved in defending intellectual freedom and lean on her for insights into real life situations Scales on Censorship is an essential ally in the ongoing fight A Teacher, Carol Ricki Stein, Heather Harlen, Audrey Nolte, Vicki Lynott, 2012-08-01

Based on the template of Charles Dickens A Christmas Carol this is a short fast paced read for busy teachers desiring inspiration as well as practical teaching strategies A team of Lehigh Valley Writing Project fellows designed this book to help others to write and to use writing to learn in all content areas Appendix includes lively lesson plans for teachers to apply immediately to enhance their classroom practice Raising Kids Who Read Daniel T. Willingham, 2015-03-09

How parents and educators can teach kids to love reading in the digital age Everyone agrees that reading is important but kids today tend to lose interest in reading before adolescence In Raising Kids Who Read bestselling author and psychology professor Daniel T Willingham explains this phenomenon and provides practical solutions for engendering a love of reading that lasts into adulthood Like Willingham's much lauded previous work Why Don't Students Like School this new book combines evidence based analysis with engaging insightful recommendations for the future Intellectually rich argumentation is woven seamlessly with entertaining current cultural references examples and steps for taking action to encourage reading The three key elements for reading enthusiasm decoding comprehension and motivation are explained in depth in Raising Kids Who Read Teachers and parents alike will appreciate the practical orientation toward supporting these three elements from birth through adolescence Most books on the topic focus on early childhood but Willingham understands that kids needs change as they grow older and the science based approach in Raising Kids Who Read applies to kids of all ages A practical perspective on teaching reading from bestselling author and K-12 education expert Daniel T Willingham Research based concrete suggestions to aid teachers and parents in promoting reading as a hobby Age specific tips for developing decoding ability comprehension and motivation in kids from birth through adolescence Information on helping kids with dyslexia and encouraging reading in the digital age Debunking the myths about reading education Raising Kids Who Read will empower you to share the joy of reading with kids from preschool through high school Practical Ideas for Teaching Writing as a Process at the Elementary School and Middle School Levels Carol Booth Olson, 1996 Teaching Middle School Writers Laura Robb, 2010 My whole goal with this book was to come at teaching writing from the angle that matters most students perspective They taught me what I needed to know to make this book live up to their passion for writing Laura Robb Adolescents have robust and rewarding writing lives outside of school that involve journals emails text messages blogs and an astounding array of genres Unlike their personal reading lives that teachers frequently tap into their personal writings typically exist under the curricular radar that is until now While grounded in the common schedule constraints and curriculum demands of middle school Laura Robb's Teaching Middle School Writers offers teachers lessons and routines that are uncommonly attuned to adolescents developmental and social needs As she taps into the energy and enthusiasm of adolescents personal writing lives Laura presents writing plans that support first drafts strategies for crafting leads that grab and endings that satisfy grammar lessons that address writing conventions editing lessons that have students revise their writing before the teacher reads it guidelines for grading and responding to student work Straight from the classroom writing samples and videos give teachers the opportunity to see how Laura uses compelling questions and powerful mentor texts to teach writing support struggling writers and weave twenty first century literacies into the writing curriculum Throughout teachers learn ways of connecting to students lives in order to bring out their best writing their best self Watch a video overview Bridge to Terabithia Katherine Paterson,1977 This Newbery Medal winning novel by bestselling author Katherine Paterson is a modern classic of friendship and loss Jess Aarons has been practicing all summer so he can be the fastest runner in the fifth grade And he almost is until the new girl in school Leslie Burke outpaces him The two become fast friends and spend most days in the woods behind Leslie's house where they invent an enchanted land called Terabithia One morning Leslie goes to Terabithia without Jess and a tragedy occurs It will take the love of his family and the strength that Leslie has given him for Jess to be able to deal with his grief In addition to being a Newbery Medal winner Bridge to Terabithia was also named an ALA Notable Children's Book and has become a touchstone of children's literature as have many of Katherine Paterson's other novels including The Great Gilly Hopkins and Jacob Have I Loved Supports the Common Core State Standards Reading and Writing Together Timothy Shanahan,1990 A Guide for Using Bridge to Terabithia in the Classroom, Based on the Novel Written by Katherine Paterson John Carratello,Patty Carratello,1991 Teaching literature unit based on the popular children's story Bridge to Terabithia The Impact of a Portfolio Assessment System on the Instruction, Motivation, and Achievement of Seventh and Eighth Grade English-language Arts Students in a Northern California Middle School Terry Underwood,1995 The Portfolio Project Terry Underwood,1999 This book is a study in research based narrative form of one middle school's implementation of a new portfolio assessment plan in response to statewide policy changes in California The book highlights the interactions of state district and local forces as teachers work to implement a portfolio assessment plan that collects student work and evaluates it systematically It examines a portfolio assessment project that views student work through three progressive lenses warm value free cool analytical and hard critical The plot of the book traverses a 15 year period in California during which assessment drove instruction across the state often in unexamined and contradictory ways always in powerful ways The book traces the ebb and flow of a variety of assessment philosophies located in living rooms classrooms principals offices district headquarters and in downtown Sacramento the state capital a variety of philosophies coming and going that left behind fixed predictable histories of conflict in classrooms Its story appears to have parallels in the recent history of schools all over the United States Chapters in the book are 1 Washers Dryers and School Reformers 2 The Portfolio Assessment System as an Innovation at Charles Ruff 3 Portfolios in Review 4 The Seeds of Change in California 1983 1994 5 Ruff Unified School District 6 Inside the Middle School 7 Ruff Instruction 8 Ruff Students and Their Portfolios and 9 Conclusions and Implications Contains an Epilogue an Appendix giving the research method and an extensive list of works cited NKA Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes,1999
