Olympiad Champs General Knowledge Class 5 with Past Olympiad Questions 2nd Edition Disha

Experts, 2020-04-18    A Measure of Intelligence Pepper Stetler, 2024-08-20 In a quest to advocate for her daughter Pepper Stetler uncovers the dark history of the IQ test leading her to question what exactly we are measuring when we measure intelligence. When Pepper Stetler learned that her daughter Louisa who has Down Syndrome would be required to take periodic IQ tests to secure support in school she asked a simple question Why? The hunt for an answer set Stetler on a winding, often dark investigation into how the IQ came to be the irrefutable standard for measuring intelligence. Blending a mother's love and dedication to her daughter with incisive historical and cultural analysis A Measure of Intelligence investigates the origins of the IQ test and its influence on our oppressive culture of high stakes testing. As she unravels the history of the IQ, exposing its roots in eugenics, racism, xenophobia, and ableism, Stetler realizes that the desire to quantify intelligence is closely tied to the desire to segregate society. A Measure of Intelligence is at once a mother's determined quest, a demand for a fundamental reevaluation of how we understand an individual's perceived potential, and a recognition of what we miss when we judge one another by this warped scale.

Once I Was Cool Megan Stielstra, 2021-08-15 Once I Was Cool contrasts past aspirations with the mess and magic of the present. In her younger days, essayist Megan Stielstra saw Jane's Addiction at the Aragon Ballroom and fantasized about living on the same block right in the thick of music and revelry. As an adult, she lives in a turreted condo across the street with her husband, a child, and an onerous mortgage. It's just the home her young cool self imagined. And it isn't what she expected either. With conversational flourishes and on-the-mark descriptions, Stielstra's essays evoke the richness of her everyday life and the memories that are never far away. She remembers learning how to shoot a gun, a cancer scare, and in a piece that was anthologized in The Best American Essays 2013, the time she eavesdropped on another new mother using her son's baby monitor. I shouldn't have listened, she writes. But it was the first time since my son was born that I didn't feel alone. Combining footnotes, electric sentences, and uproariously funny anecdotes, have you ever run into an ex while rolling on ecstasy? Stielstra shows us that maturity is demanding, but its rewards are a gift.
