American Revolution (1763 - 1776)

French and Indian War

Dates: 1754 - 1763

Causes: The French and Indian War (also known as the Seven Years' War) was fought between Great Britain and France over control of North America. Both wanted the land for its resources and to expand their empires.

Outcomes: Great Britain won, gaining control over the Mississippi River Valley and eastern Canada. Influence on Colonial Relations: The war cost a lot of money. The British government felt the colonists should help pay for the war debt because the war also benefited them. The colonists did not think it was fair to be taxed without their consent.

Colonial Taxes

Sugar Act (1764): Taxed sugar and molasses.

Stamp Act (1765): Taxed paper products.

Quartering Act (1765): Required the colonists to house and feed British soldiers.

Townshend Acts (1767, 1768): A series of taxes on British imported goods including glass, paint, and tea.

Tea Act (1773): Reduced the tax on British tea, giving the British control over tea sales in the colonies. The Tea Act led to the Boston Tea Party.

Coercive (Intolerable) Acts (1774): After the Boston Tea Party, the British passed a series of laws to punish the people of Massachusetts. The Boston Port was closed, and town meetings were banned.

The Declaration of Independence

Forming a New American Identity

First Continental Congress (1774): Representatives from the colonies met to discuss their concerns about British laws. They wrote a letter to King George III, the Declaration of Rights, listing colonial grievances against the British government. They also demanded that the king repeal the Coercive Acts, or they would boycott British goods.

Second Continental Congress (1775 - 1781): The Congress voted to declare independence, signed the Declaration of Independence, and oversaw the Revolutionary War. Wartime responsibilities included selecting the Commander of the Continental Army, creating an army, printing money, getting loans, and sending ambassadors to other countries to raise support.

Declaration of Independence (July 4, 1776): This document formally declared independence from Great Britain and established American values. It stated that Americans have "certain unalienable rights," which include life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. At the time, the document only applied to white male property owners.

Revolution (1763 - 1776)

Significant Figures

Thomas Jefferson: Member of the Continental Congress, credited as the author of the Declaration of Independence.

John Adams: Defended the British soldiers in the Boston Massacre trial, member of the Continental Congress, helped write the Declaration of Independence.

Thomas Paine: Wrote the pamphlet Common Sense, promoting American independence.

Legislators: About one-third of colonists supported the British due to pride in being British and fear the colonies would spiral out of control.

Major Events & Battles

Boston Tea Party (1773): To protest the Tea Act, colonists disguised themselves as Mohawk Indians, boarded British ships, and dumped tea into the Boston Harbor. The British lost tea revenue.

Battles of Lexington and Concord (April 19, 1775): A standoff between British troops and a colonial militia escalated into the first battle of the Revolutionary War. To this day, no one knows which side fired first.

Boston Massacre (1770)

Tension in Boston led to British soldiers firing into a crowd, killing five colonists.
