Barbara Quart

Girl In A Red Tunic:

Girl in a Red Tunic Alys Clare, 2009 Girl in a Red Tunic Alys Clare, 2006 Abbess Helewise is struggling to keep the Abbey going through a brutal winter and in the midst of this hardship her son returns after 20 years in desperate need of help. Then a man is found strangled and the next day her son flees Helewise and Josse d'Acquin must now investigate the past to a time before Helewise took the veil. Were her handsome husband and her enigmatic father-in-law all that they seemed? And can she prevent another terrible murder or will the sins of the fathers be laid upon her innocent son? Red-Robed Priestess Elizabeth Cunningham, 2013-02-05 After a life of passion and adventure that has brought her through slavery to the Resurrection garden through the controversies of the Early Church to a hermit cave in southern Gaul, Maeve the Celtic Mary Magdalen returns to the Holy Isles accompanied by Sarah, her daughter, with Jesus. Their mission is to find Maeve's first-born child, stolen from her by the druids more than forty years ago. Since then, Maeve's homeland has suffered its own trials: Roman invasion and occupation. The Celtic tribes to the east and south are under direct rule, and the Romans are determined to rout the resistance of the western tribes, resistance fueled by the druids of Mona. Just before she crosses the channel from Gaul to Britain, Maeve encounters a man she mistakes for Jesus's ghost. This familiar stranger is equally haunted, and the two are drawn into a moonstruck liaison that will entwine their lives in an impossible Celtic knot. For unbeknownst to Maeve at the time, he is none other than General Gaius Suetonius Paulinus, the newly appointed Roman Governor of Britain. Maeve keeps this troubling tryst a secret even after she finds her long-lost daughter, Boudica, the fierce and charismatic queen of the Iceni tribe. Druid-trained in her youth, Boudica married the Iceni king, hoping to rally him to a rebellion for which he has no stomach. Now estranged from her husband, Boudica keeps the old ways sustained by her pride in her descent from her father, and Maeve is the late great druid, Lovernios. Seeking to circumvent disaster, Maeve travels back and forth from Iceni country to Mona, from the heart of native resistance to a Roman fort on the Western front, steadfast in her conviction: Love is as strong as death.

Women Directors Barbara Quart, 1989-12-12 Quart here extends her previous writings on what she terms the best narrative cinema: women-centered cinema and feminist filmmaking. Quart addresses American, Western European, and Eastern European directors, closing with Third World examples. Arguing that independent filmmaking best serves the quest for a woman's voice and vision, Quart chronicles the survival of women directors. She traces a heritage of women directors inside the Hollywood system and beyond. This excellent study is recommended for undergraduates in film and women's studies. Choice The current level of activity among women directors is unequalled in the history of feature films. This unprecedented study examines major contemporary women directors of narrative feature film: their themes, their art, and the circumstances under which they work. Quart contends that women are creating a film language and film sensibility that are unique, strong, and until now unexplored. Her discussion centers on the ties between women directors rather than on a survey of women who direct films. Beginning with the antecedents to today's burgeoning number of women directors, the study
