

Narrative Story

In the heart of the sprawling concrete jungle of New York City, where towering skyscrapers kissed the sky and bustling streets hummed with unending activity, there stood a forgotten sentinel of the past – an old, rusty lamppost named Leonard. Unlike his newer, shinier counterparts, Leonard bore the scars of time. His once vibrant green paint was now peeling away in large flakes, revealing raw, weathered metal beneath. His light, unlike the steady glow of others, flickered intermittently, casting an uneven, dancing glow on the frost-kissed sidewalk below. Amidst the vibrant city life, Leonard was a silent observer, often overlooked, but he possessed a spirit unique to him and a tale that was yet to unfold.

On a particularly harsh winter evening, when the biting cold gnawed at every corner and frost clung tenaciously onto every surface, Leonard noticed a small, shivering stray puppy huddled under his feeble light. The puppy's fur was matted with grime, its eyes wide and reflecting the harsh realities of street life. Witnessing the helpless creature's plight, Leonard felt a surge of empathy and determination. Gathering all his strength, he burned brighter, straining against his old wiring, casting a halo of warmth around the tiny, trembling body of the puppy.

The night wore on, faceless people bundled in heavy coats passing by, oblivious to the small drama unfolding under Leonard. Until Lily arrived. Lily, a nine-year-old with sparkling blue eyes that mirrored the innocence of childhood and a heart so big, it was brimming with compassion. Drawn in by Leonard's unusually bright light, a beacon in the cold winter night, she discovered the tiny, quivering form of the puppy underneath.

"Oh, you poor thing!" She exclaimed, her voice breaking the silence of the night as she gently stroked the puppy, her small hands providing comfort. Looking up at Leonard, she whispered a heartfelt, "Thank you, Leonard." Leonard responded by flickering twice, his light dancing like a flame, casting long, playful shadows on the snow-covered pavement.

 arising from the earlier studies and examined the writing skills of students in grades 5 8 and 12 Writing samples were examined for conformity to the norms of story structure and argumentation and the subject matter of the transactional writing was analyzed The level of affective development manifested in subsamples of both the stories and the arguments was rated All the papers in the sample were analyzed for syntactic complexity scores and for mechanical and conventional errors Comparisons of the first and second versions of the papers were made to assess skills in revising and editing Findings indicated the need of students to learn how to write an argument and to revise a paper Other implications were 1 that since the level of difficulty of one aspect of a writing task may decrease the lack of control in another teachers must take into account the nature of difficulties in the tasks they set students and make their assessments accordingly 2 that students at all
