Act One Moss Hart,2017-11-13 Excerpt from Act One An Autobiography It was as far as I was concerned the perfect job There was usually even enough time before Mr Levenson returned at seven o clock for a good half hour or so of pure idle dreaming a necessity as basic to a twelve year old boy as food and drink I was thoroughly conscious of the fact that my own dreams of glory were quite unlike those of the other boys on the block for the fantasies and speculations I indulged in after I had reluctantly turned the last page of Theatre Magazine were always of Broadway They were fantasies because though I had been born in and had lived in New York City all of my life I had never actually seen Broadway About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
