Wildlife Review ,1989      From the Old Country Bruce M. Stave, John Fulton Sutherland, Aldo Salerno, 1999 For nearly a century the symbol of the American melting pot enjoyed considerable popularity Bruce M Stave and John F Sutherland explore this and other concepts in an oral history comprising the voices of European immigrants to Connecticut Both practicing oral historians their interviews join others conducted by the Works Progress Administration in the 1930s providing readers with a perspective of at least three generations of immigrant experience including the role that the family unit played both economically and socially Of special interest is the place held by immigrant women in the new world as traditional relationships between men and women and within families began to change      Family Connections Judith E. Smith, 1985-06-30 Family Connections examines the dimensions of daily survival strategies for newcomers in an uncertain urban environment Focusing on the history of Italian and Jewish immigrant families in Providence Rhode Island the book assesses the links between familial and ethnic culture and broader allegiances of solidarity and suggests some of the differences between male and female experience within a shared identity as a family Contains four maps 25 photos
