Holcombe, 2008 Getting Involved in the Fight documents the process of development and direction for the performance of Neil Simon's Biloxi Blues presented in the McLeod Theatre at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale October 4 through October 7, 2008. This document contains information on the director's research, analysis, production process, and her evaluation of this production. Following the introduction, a statement of the director's vision and concept for the production, the document continues with a chapter on dramaturgical research and critical analysis for this production. Chapter Three discusses the developmental process, including design and pre-rehearsal notes from initial meetings with the design team to specific rehearsal plans. Also examined is the production process from casting to the closing performance. These details are based on a daily log kept by the director during the project. The final chapter is an evaluation that includes highlights of public critiques and the committee's critique. It also includes a self-evaluation section that addresses the director's learning process and her assessment of the production's success in terms of her stated goals. Biloxi Blues, Biloxi Blues, by Neil Simon, [directed by Maurice Podbrey], 1988 Biloxi Blues, 1990 Biloxi Blues (play), 19??
