Advances In Environment Behavior And Design Volume 1:

Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 2014-05-14      Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 1991-01-31 This third volume in Advances in Environment Behavior and Design follows the conceptual framework adopted in the previous two volumes see the Preface to Volume 1 1987 It is organized into five sections advances in theory advances in place user group and sociobehavioral research and advances in research utilization The authors of this volume represent a wide spectrum of the multi disciplinary environment behavior and design field including architecture environmental psychology facility management geography human factors sociology and urban design The volume offers international perspectives from North America Carole Despres from Canada several authors from the U S Europe Martin Krampen from Germany Martin Symes from England and New Zealand David Kernohan More so than any of the previous volumes they are drawn from both academia and professional practice While there continues to be a continuity in format in the series we are actively exploring new directions that are on the cutting edges of the field and bode well for a more integrated future This volume will further develop the themes of design and professional practice to complement the earlier emphases on theory research and methods      Advances in Environment, Behavior and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 2013-11-11 This second volume in the Advances in Environment Behavior and Design series follows the pattern of Volume 1 It is organized into six sections user group research consisting of advances in theory place research sociobehavioral research research and design methods and research utilization The authors of the chapters in this volume represent a range of disciplines including architecture geography psychology social ecology and urban planning They also offer international perspectives Tommy Garling from Sweden Graeme Hardie from South Africa recently relocated to North Carolina Gerhard Kaminski from the Federal Republic of Germany and Roderick Lawrence from Switzerland formerly from Australia Although most chapters address topics or issues that are likely to be familiar to readers environmental perception and cognition facility programming and environmental evaluation four chapters address what the editors perceive to be new topics for environment behavior and design research Herbert Schroeder reports on advances in research on urban forestry For most of us the term forest probably conjures up visions of dense woodlands in rural or wild settings Nevertheless in many parts of the country urban areas have higher densities of tree coverage than can be found in surrounding rural landscapes Schroeder reviews research that addresses the perceived and actual benefits and costs associated with these urban forests      Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Erwin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 1991 This third volume in Advances in Environment Behavior and Design follows the conceptual framework adopted in the previous two volumes see the Preface to Volume 1 1987 It is organized into five sections advances in theory advances in place user group and sociobehavioral research and advances in research utilization The authors of this volume represent a wide spectrum of the multi disciplinary environment behavior and design field including architecture environmental psychology facility management geography human factors sociology and urban design The volume offers international perspectives from North America Carole Despres from Canada several authors from the U S Europe Martin Krampen from Germany Martin Symes from England and New Zealand David Kernohan More so than any of the previous volumes they are drawn from both academia and professional practice While there continues to be a continuity in format in the series we are actively exploring new directions that are on the cutting edges of the field and bode well for a more integrated future This volume will further develop the themes of design and professional practice to complement the earlier emphases on theory research and methods Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design Ervin H. Zube, Gary T. Moore, 1987

The Meaning and Use of Housing Ernesto G. Arias, 2024-11-07 Originally published in 1993 as part of the Ethnoscapes Current Challenges in the Environmental Social Sciences series reissued now with a new series introduction The Meaning and Use of Housing presents a reevaluation of the use and meaning of residential environments It integrates methodological and philosophical approaches to assist in the making of comparisons across issues concerns disciplines and countries and links theory research and practice It spans the globe reviewing studies of every conceivable form of housing In these studies a wide range of social science design management and policy perspectives are harnessed to enrich our understanding of the central place in people's life their homes Toward the Integration of Theory, Methods, Research, and Utilization Gary T. Moore, Robert W. Marans, 2013-03-09 This fourth volume in the Advances in Environment Behavior and Design series continues the intent of earlier volumes by exploring new directions in the multidisciplinary environment behavior EB or EBS field The series is organized around a framework of theory methods research and utilization that some say has defined the field for the past 15 years This fourth volume is devoted to chapters that explore the integration of theory quantitative and qualitative research and utilization in policy planning and architecture The authors selected for this volume exemplify the multidisciplinary character of the field they have been selected from architecture environmental psychology environmental studies housing research landscape architecture social anthropology social ecology urban design and urban planning from academia and practice and from Australia Europe and North America HISTORY OF THE ADVANCES SERIES The idea for the series emerged in 1983 at meetings of the Board of Directors of the Environmental Design Research Association EDRA Several publishers were contacted about the possibility of an EDRA Annual Review Eliot Werner at Plenum Press expressed great interest but suggested that an Advances series would be more appropriate since publication could be tied to a less specific timetable EDRA Plenum and the editors signed a contract in June 1984 for three volumes with an open door for oral agreements between Plenum and the editors after that time Four volumes have been published Volume 1 1987 Volume 2 1989 Volume 3 1991 and the current Volume 4 each containing 10 to 12 chapters Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 23, 2003 Hans-Werner Wahl, PhD, Rick Scheidt, PhD, Paul Windley, PhD, 2003-11-12 Print CourseSmart Professional Practice in Facility Programming (Routledge Revivals) Wolfgang Preiser,2015-06-11 This compelling resource which was first published in 1993 was the first book on facility programming to design parameters and specifications over a broad range of project types The book s practical how to approach is exceedingly beneficial to professionals and students involved with a wide variety of building types from corporate facilities to parks day care centres health centres and correctional facilities It also covers the fine points of working with clients The contributors provide real world case studies endowing the reader with the tools necessary to reap a deeper understanding and a more critical assessment of the major programming approaches today Professional Practice in Facility Programming is a uniquely current self contained resource that will prove invaluable to a wide cross section of practitioners and students     Advances in Environment, Behavior, and Design ,1987     EDRA; Proceedings of the Annual Environmental Design Research Association Conference Environmental Design Research Association,2007     New Serial Titles ,1989 A union list of serials commencing publication after Dec 31 1949     Looking Back to the Future: Symposia and papers International Association for the Study of People and their Physical Surroundings.
