Reppin' Keith L. Camacho, 2021-05-27 Explores the critical insights and creative energies of Pacific Islander youth. From hip hop artists in the Marshall Islands to innovative multimedia producers in Vanuatu to racial justice writers in Utah Pacific Islander youth are using radical expression to transform their communities. Exploring multiple perspectives about Pacific Islander youth cultures in such locations as Aotearoa New Zealand Australia Hawa i and Tonga this cross disciplinary volume foregrounds social justice methodologies and programs that confront the ongoing legacies of colonization, incarceration and militarization. The ten essays in this collection also highlight the ways in which youth throughout Oceania and the diaspora have embraced digital technologies to communicate across national boundaries, mobilize sites of political resistance and remix popular media. By centering Indigenous peoples creativity and self determination Reppin vividly illuminates the dynamic power of Pacific Islander youth to reshape the present and future of settler cities and other urban spaces in Oceania and beyond

A Pedagogy of Multiliteracies Bill Cope, Mary Kalantzis, 2016-04-29 The concept of Multiliteracies has gained increasing influence since it was coined by the New London Group in 1994. This collection edited by two of the original members of the group brings together a representative range of authors each of whom has been involved in the application of the pedagogy of Multiliteracies

Empowered Educators in Australia Dion Burns, Ann McIntyre, 2017-04-03 BEST PRACTICES FROM AUSTRALIA S HIGH PERFORMING SCHOOL SYSTEMS Empowered Educators in Australia is one volume in a series that explores how high performing educational systems from around the world achieve strong results. The anchor book Empowered Educators How High Performing Systems Shape Teaching Quality Around the World is written by Linda Darling Hammond and colleagues with contributions from the authors of this volume. The authors of Empowered Educators in Australia take an in depth look at the policies and practices surrounding teaching quality in two different states New South Wales NSW and Victoria NSW offers significant support for government schools in areas such as staffing and teacher professional development. Victoria operates a highly devolved school system. Each provides a contrasting view of how federal and state policies combine to shape learning outcomes for students in Australia. The interplay between state and federal policy characterizes an intriguing centralizing decentralization. Initiatives to create national curricular teaching and teacher education standards all sit in balanced tension with a movement towards greater devolution of authority to schools. Together the NSW and Victoria case studies provide insights into policies that can support high quality teaching in a federal education system. Australia s current educational reforms place increasing emphasis on issues of teaching quality reshaping teaching as a standards based evidence informed profession and one that seeks to foster collegiality and professional exchange. These reforms encompass many aspects of a system that supports teaching quality and highlight the way teachers are trained how they are inducted into the teaching profession and supported with mentors the professional learning they receive how they are appraised on their work and the career pathways for teachers

Applied Languages Senior Secondary Assessment Board of South Australia, 1985 The Unit Curriculum, 1987 Languages in Australian Education Anthony J. Liddicoat, Angela Scarino, 2009-12-14 Australia has a reputation for sustained work in language policy and has had over 20 years of experience of language policy development. During these years language policies have sought to increase and reshape languages education in Australian schools but have had only limited success in achieving their objectives. This means that Australia's extensive work in language policy has not yet guaranteed a secure place for languages within education. After a period of comparative neglect of languages and multiculturalism Australia is now entering a new phase of activity in language policy and it is timely to consider critically what has and has not been achieved to date and the reasons why. The aim of this book is to examine the current state, nature, role and purposes of languages in Australian education as a basis for considering a viable encompassing language education policy. The book is divided into four specific focus areas for discussion, each of which is based on a core

theme in Australian languages education engaging with diversity the current state of policy and participation in languages education and languages teacher education current orientations to languages education and future possibilities and directions in languages education Underlying the discussion is the recognition that at this particular juncture in languages education policy in Australia it is necessary to re examine constructs research evidence and practice as the basis for renewal The book presents a collection of papers dealing with each of the themes and aims to give greater focus to the contemporary debates around languages in education in Australia and more generally Modern Foreign Languages Department for Education and Skills,2004
