This is a book about the theory and practice of the method of systemic family constellation. Ursula Franke provides a well-grounded historical overview of the precursors to family constellations. In addition, she presents and defines the central terminology of these methods. The author presents a model that attempts to explain the efficacy of constellations. The empirical section allows the reader to take a look at the procedure that is used in the process of a constellation. In addition, the possibilities for and limitations of using constellations in individual therapy are discussed. The study presented in The River never looks back focuses on therapy with anxiety patients. The results of the study can be used in regular psychotherapeutic practices and is thus helpful for all therapists who work with constellations. Messengers of Healing J. Edward Lynch, Suzi Tucker, 2005-01. Includes contributors from a range of professional backgrounds writing about their experiences using Bert Hellinger's Constellation therapy. The River Never Looks Back Historical and Practical Foundations of Bert Hellinger's Family Constellations Ursula Franke, 2003-01-01. Touching Love Bert Hellinger, Hunter Beaumont, 1999. On Life and Other Paradoxes Bert Hellinger, 2002. In the Presence of Many Vivian Broughton, 2010-01. Author Gary Stuart is generous in his examples of how certain dynamics within our family systems can adversely influence our lives. He discusses generational family order and the importance of assuring that all family members feel included. Questions of transgenerational entanglements and the inheriting of guilt are also addressed as well as the ways in which we can release ourselves from our negative family patterns. But Many Hearts One Soul goes far beyond merely explaining the process itself. Stuart infuses the work with inspirational poetry, personal commentary, and a heartfelt desire to share what he has discovered from his years of experience. In doing so, he conveys a message of hope and commonality that we each belong even if we feel that we do not.
