

BIOLOGY LAB MANUAL GUIDELINES: CLASS 9

The following topics are meant for the practical work. You have to do them in project file papers. Please use a hard cover file, one with laces to tie up.

The students please make a note that the white part will always be used for diagrams and the ruled part for writing. Always use a sharpened pencil for diagrams and use blue/black ink for writing. For labelling please use ruler and draw lines, write with pencil only. All diagrams must have a proper margin on all 4 sides. Do write the dates too whenever you are completing the work.

The following topics/experiments need to be completed :

1. Draw and label the different parts of a compound microscope. (You may refer the diagram of compound microscope from the book, chapter : cell or here is a diagram given as an attachment. The size of the diagram should not be too small or too big )

Please write a short report on the compound microscope as well.

(Mention about the invention and brief account of the parts present in it and the functions of these parts)
