Mathilde Carr notoriously known as La Chatte was remarkable for all the wrong reasons Like most spies she was temperamental scheming and manipulative but she was also treacherous A dangerous mix especially when combined with her infamous history of love affairs on both sides Her acts of treachery were almost unprecedented in the history of intelligence yet her involvement in the Interalli affair has only warranted a brief mention in the accounts of special operations in France during the Second World War But what motivated her to betray more than 100 members of the Interalli network the largest spy network in France Was she the only guilty party or were others equally as culpable Drawing on material from MI5 files Double Agent Victoire explores the events that led to her betrayal who may have cast the first stone and their motivations as well as how the lives and careers of those involved were affected It reveals a story full of intrigue sex betrayal and double dealing involving a rich cast including members of the French Resistance German Abwehr and British Intelligence      South West Secret Agents Laura Quigley, 2014-09-01 True tales of Second World War spies from across the West Country have been collected together for the very first time in this fascinating book From the rescue operations as the exodus from France began to the secret guerrilla army in Devon and Cornwall this book will amaze and intrigue with the incredible stories of Jasper Lawn of N51 the Helford Flotilla and the first escape routes for POWs agents and crashed airmen
