Australian Rules, a Film by Paul Goldman Libby Tudball, 200? A Study Guide for Alfred Uhry's "Driving Miss Daisy (film entry)" Gale, Cengage Learning, 2016 A Study Guide for Alfred Uhry's Driving Miss Daisy film entry excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Drama For Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Drama For Students for all of your research needs Feature Films in English Language Teaching Britta Viebrock, 2016-07-11 Feature Films in English Language Teaching deals with the use of motion pictures in the advanced EFL English as a foreign language classroom It provides a general introduction to film literacy and explains the rationale methods and objectives of working with feature films In addition the book contains in depth considerations on sixteen selected films which are grouped regionally Australia New Zealand South Africa USA Great Britain Each chapter describes the topical focus of the film and its central theme and provides background information on social historical political and geographical issues A profound analysis of selected scenes lays the foundation for considerations on the teaching potential of the film In a download section the chapters are complemented with ready to use teaching materials on film specific aspects narrative dramatic and cinematographic dimensions which are organised as pre while post viewing activities A glossary on technical terms for film analysis completes the volume Pockets of Change Jane Stadler, Peta Mitchell, Adam Atkinson, Tricia Hopton, 2011-04-29 The twelve essays collected in Pockets of Change locate adaptation within a framework of two overlapping if not simultaneous creative processes on the one hand adaptation is to be understood as an acknowledged transposition of an existing source that is the process of adapting from on the other hand adaption is also a process of purposeful shifting and evolving of creative practices in response to external factors including but not limited to other creative works in other words the process of adapting to This book explores adaptation then as an active practice of repetition and as a reactive process of development or evolution The essays also extend beyond the production transformation and interpretation of texts to interrogate the values and practices at work in cultural transition and transformation during periods of social and historical change Collectively the papers theorize adaptation by taking on three tasks first to examine the conditions under which the two processes of adaptation operate second to give an account of the space and moment in which the processes unfold the pockets of the title and finally to examine what emerges from pockets of adaptation While adapting from and adapting to are both processes that appear to preclude innovation in the way that they acknowledge and depend on external sources Pockets of Change demonstrates that adaptation is productive It not only references prior texts attitudes practices and media but it also invites us to re visit the past and to re think the present in new ways potentially giving narrative space to muted or occluded voices This book therefore brings together an innovative and varied range of approaches to interpretations and uses of adaptation challenging the assumption that an adaptation is simply either a re make or the act of turning one medium into another Adaptation then names not only the means by which texts are transformed but also the space in which that transformation takes place T
