a. Planning Models
Planning models are models designed to help decision makers to evaluate alternative projects. They are usually computer-based and the planning models are often linked with databases to support evaluations by business units and the business units can use the models to evaluate alternative projects and make better decisions.

Planning models can be used to evaluate projects that are not necessarily financial in nature. For example, a planning model can be used to evaluate the impact of a proposed new building on the environment. The model can evaluate the environmental impact of the proposed building and help the decision makers to make better decisions.
