Always Outnumbered Always Outgunned By Walter Mosley Summary Study Guide:

Walter Mosley's Detective Novels Agustín Reyes Torres, 2011-11-28 Basat en la perspectiva de la identitat la consciència i la subjectivitat dels estudiosos negres com Stuart Hall Bell Hooks Cornel West Henry Louis Gates Jr i W I B Du Bois al costat de l'enfocament postcolonial de crítics com Bill Ashcroft Gareth Griffiths Helen Tiffin i Homi Bhabha entre d'altres aquest llibre proporciona el marc teòric necessari per a analitzar les novel·les d'Easy Rawlins escrites per Walter Mosley l'autor s'apropia de les convencions de la novel·la detectivesca per tal de representar la societat americana dels cinquanta i seixanta des d'una perspectiva marginal La subjectivitat d'Easy Rawlins està determinada pel seu paper com a detectiu la seva consciència postcolonial com a home negre que ha crescut en una societat dominada pels blancs i per la seua inclinació i defensa d'una forta cultura afroamericana

Toward a Literary Ecology Karen E. Waldron, Rob Friedman, 2013-07-29 Scholarship of literature and the environment demonstrates myriad understandings of nature and culture While some work in the field results in approaches that belong in the realm of cultural studies other scholars have expanded the boundaries of ecocriticism to connect the practice more explicitly to disciplines such as the biological sciences human geography or philosophy Even so the field of ecocriticism has yet to clearly articulate its interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary nature In Toward a Literary Ecology Places and Spaces in American Literature editors Karen E. Waldron and Robert Friedman have assembled a collection of essays that study the interconnections between literature and the environment to theorize literary ecology The disciplinary perspectives in these essays allow readers to comprehend places and environments and to represent express or strive for that comprehension through literature Contributors to this volume explore the works of several authors including Gary Snyder Karen Tei Yamashita Rachel Carson Terry Tempest Williams Chip Ward and Mary Oliver Other essays discuss such topics as urban fiction as a model of literary ecology the geographies of belonging in the work of Native American poets and the literary ecology of place in new nature writing Investigating texts for the complex interconnections they represent Toward a Literary Ecology suggests what such texts might teach us about the interconnections of our own world This volume also offers a means of analyzing representations of people in places within the realm of an historical cultural and geographically bounded yet diverse American literature Intended for students of literature and ecology this collection will also appeal to scholars of geography cultural studies philosophy biology history anthropology and other related disciplines

Searching for the New Black Man Ronda C. Henry Anthony, 2013-06-01 Using the slave narratives of Henry Bibb and Frederick Douglass as well as the work of W E B Du Bois James Baldwin Walter Mosley and Barack Obama Ronda C. Henry Anthony examines how women's bodies are used in African American literature to fund the production of black masculine ideality and power In tracing representations of ideal black masculinities and femininities the author shows how black men's struggles for gendered agency are inextricably entwined with their complicated relation to white men and normative masculinity The historical context in which this study couches these struggles highlights the extent to which shifting socioeconomic circumstances dictate the ideological cultural and emotional terms upon which black men conceptualize identity Yet Anthony quickly moves to texts that challenge traditional constructions of black masculinity In these texts she traces how the emergence of collaboratively gendered discourses or a blending of black female male feminist consciousnesses are reshaping black masculinities femininities and intraracial relations for a new century

The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2000-02-15 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book

What it Means to be Daddy Jennifer Hamer, 2001 Absent fathers and households headed by single mothers are frequently blamed for the poor quality of life of African American children This book challenges these assumptions arguing that they are largely an unfair reflection of non working class white American values Hamer places the behaviors of black non custodial fathers in their social political and economic contexts and describes these fatherless families from the perspectives of the families themselves

Walter Mosley Charles E. Wilson, 2003-05-30 Readers of this Critical Companion will discover the richness of Mosley's writings as well as his contributions to the African American literary tradition the genres of detective writing and science fiction and American literature in general Mosley's influences inspirations obstacles and successes are presented in a richly drawn biographical chapter which incorporates the author's most recent interviews Mosley's first detective novel Devil in a Blue Dress 1990 established a new voice in detective fiction offering an African American perspective that resonated to a broad spectrum of readers From his Easy Rawlins mysteries to his science fiction Mosley invites readers into unexpected worlds and challenges his audience to think beyond their assumptions about society Perhaps because he manages to link the trials of his characters to the enigma of the human condition his prolific genre spanning work has met with both popular and critical success This is the only book length study of Mosley's fiction covering eight of his key novels including his most recent Bad Boy Brawley Brown 2002 In addition to comprehensive plot synopsis character portraits and thematic discussions for each work historical contexts are considered Terms and concepts are clearly explained for the student and general reader A select bibliography cites biographical sources interviews criticism reviews and related works of interest
