

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A Proclamation.

Whereas, on the twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, a proclamation was issued by the President of the United States, containing, among other things, the following, to wit:

"That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever, free; and the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons, or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

"That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof, respectively, shall then be in rebellion against the United States; and the fact that any State, or the people thereof, shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State, and the people thereof, are not then in rebellion against the United States."

Now, therefore, I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States, by virtue of the power in me vested as commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, in time of actual armed rebellion against the authority and government of the United States, and as a fit and necessary war measure for suppressing said rebellion, do, on this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and in accordance with my purpose so to do, publicly proclaimed for the full period of one hundred days from the day first above mentioned, order and designate as the States and parts of States wherein the people thereof, respectively, are this day in rebellion against the United States, the following, to wit: ARKANSAS, TEXAS, LOUISIANA, (except the Parishes of St. Bernard, Plaquemine, Jefferson, St. John, St. Charles, St. James, Ascension, Assumption, Terre Haute, Lafourche, St. Mary, St. Martin, and Orleans, including the City of New Orleans,) MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, FLORIDA, GEORGIA, SOUTH CAROLINA, NORTH CAROLINA, AND VIRGINIA, (except the forty-eight counties designated as West Virginia, and also the counties of Berkeley, Accomac, Northampton, Elizabeth City, York, Princess Anne, and Norfolk, including the cities of Norfolk and Portsmouth,) and which excepted parts are for the present left precisely as if this proclamation were not issued.

And by virtue of the power and for the purpose aforesaid, I do order and declare that all persons held as slaves within said designated States and parts of States are and henceforward shall be free; and that the Executive government of the United States, including the military and naval authorities thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of said persons.

And I hereby enjoin upon the people so declared to be free to abstain from all violence, unless in necessary self-defence; and I recommend to them that, in all cases when allowed, they labor faithfully for reasonable wages.

And I further declare and make known that such persons, of suitable condition, will be received into the armed service of the United States, to garrison forts, positions, stations, and other places, and to man vessels of all sorts in said service.

And upon this act, sincerely believed to be an act of justice warranted by the Constitution upon military necessity, I invoke the considerate judgment of mankind and the gracious favor of Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington this first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the eighty-seventh.

Holzer,Edna G. Medford, Frank J. Williams, 2006-05-01 The Emancipation Proclamation is the most important document of arguably the greatest president in U S history Now Edna Greene Medford Frank J Williams and Harold Holzer eminent experts in their fields remember analyze and interpret the Emancipation Proclamation in three distinct respects the influence of and impact upon African Americans the legal political and military exigencies and the role pictorial images played in establishing the document in public memory The result is a carefully balanced yet provocative study that views the proclamation and its author from the perspective of fellow Republicans antiwar Democrats the press the military the enslaved free blacks and the antislavery white establishment as well as the artists publishers sculptors and their patrons who sought to enshrine Abraham Lincoln and his decree of freedom in iconography Medford places African Americans the people most affected by Lincoln s edict at the center of the drama rather than at the periphery as previous studies have done She argues that blacks interpreted the proclamation much more broadly than Lincoln intended it and during the postwar years and into the twentieth century they became disillusioned by the broken promise of equality and the realities of discrimination violence and economic dependence Williams points out the obstacles Lincoln overcame in finding a way to confiscate property enslaved humans without violating the Constitution He suggests that the president solidified his reputation as a legal and political genius by issuing the proclamation as Commander in Chief thus taking the property under the pretext of military necessity Holzer explores how it was only after Lincoln s assassination that the Emancipation Proclamation became an acceptable subject for pictorial celebration Even then it was the image of the martyr president as the great emancipator that resonated in public memory while any reference to those African Americans most affected by the proclamation was stripped away This multilayered treatment reveals that the proclamation remains a singularly brave and bold act brilliantly calculated to maintain the viability of the Union during wartime deeply dependent on the enlightened voices of Lincoln s contemporaries and owing a major debt in history to the image makers who quickly and indelibly preserved it The Emancipation Proclamation Marianne McComb, 2006 This book describes in very straightforward and accurate text the roots of slavery in the United States The Emancipation Proclamation, Smithsonian Edition Abraham Lincoln, 2022-03-22 This distinguished edition captures a pivotal moment of justice in the United States with a document that paved the way for the abolition of slavery This handsome pocket sized Smithsonian edition printed in the United States contains Lincoln s groundbreaking executive order and the writings that helped form it with features that make it the perfect keepsake Bound in faux leather Foil stamped in gold Sturdy quality hardcover The edition stands out in the market with an illuminating new introduction from Paul Gardullo curator at the Smithsonian s National Museum of African American History His research on the impact of slavery in America s cultural memory contextualizes the historical document as part of a larger cultural narrative connecting its legacy to modern day Abraham Lincoln considered the Emancipation Proclamation the crowning achievement of his presidency and it is easy to see why The imperative document freed African Americans enslaved in the
