Aleph Espanol Spanish Edition:

Sixteenth-Century Judeo-Spanish Testimonies Annette Benaim, 2011-10-06 This book consists of a previously unidentified corpus of literature that contains an edition of eighty four testimonies of the sixteenth century responsa. An overview of the responsa literature in the relevant context and aspects of Ottoman Jewish life are discussed. The author describes the merit of the Judeo Spanish testimonies in terms of the insight they offer into the society, economy, religion, and responsa literature of sixteenth century Ottoman Jewry. The study of these texts from a linguistic perspective constitutes the main aim of the book, yet the result is a valuable and intriguing source of texts that should generate further study in fields of linguistics, Sephardic Studies, Hispanic Studies, and Jewish Studies, whether cultural, historical, or legal. This book is an important resource for linguists, social scientists, scholars of Jewish culture, and law, women studies, and obviously for Sephardic studies with special reference to the Ottoman period. Rachel Simon, Princeton University. Judeo-Spanish Ballads from Bosnia Samuel G. Armistead, Joseph H. Silverman, 2016-11-11 The Judeo Spanish folk literature of the Sephardic Jews of Bosnia, and with it their uncommonly rich balladry, has remained largely unknown to Western scholars. Since their move to Sarajevo in the sixteenth century, Serbo-Croatian has displaced their original Spanish, and the entire culture is rapidly approaching extinction. This book preserves for posterity three fundamentally important groups of these rare ballads: Kalmi Baruch's Spanski romanse ballads collected from the readers of the Sarajevo newspaper Jevrejski Glas, and five previously unedited eighteenth century Bosnian ballads from a manuscript in the Jewish National and University Library in Jerusalem. Notes, abstracts in English, reproductions of the music itself, and other scholarly aids serve to make this colorful and strangely modern literature fully accessible to Hispanists, folklorists, and all students of comparative literature and Judaic culture.

Twentieth-century Spanish American literature to 1960 David William Foster, Daniel Altamiranda, 1997 Meets the needs of today's teachers and students. Gathered to meet the upsurge of interest in Latin America, this collection features major critical articles dealing with the authors and texts customarily taught in colleges and universities in the United States. The articles are in English and Spanish, with a predominance of the former. Surveys a dynamic and exciting area of research. Four Latin American writers have won the Nobel Prize for Literature: Guatemalan Miguel Angel Asturias, Chilean Gabriela Mistral, Colombian Gabriel Garcia Marquez, and Chilean Pablo Neruda. Also internationally recognized are the Argentine Jorge Luis Borges, the Mexican Carlos Fuentes, and the Chilean Isabel Allende, to name only a few. Moreover, the sociopolitical circumstances of the past four decades of Latin American history and the growing importance of the region have resulted in the creation of Latin American studies programs in numerous American universities. All of this literary activity has inspired innumerable dissertations, theses, books, and journal articles. Explores contemporary Latin American issues and concerns. In the face of such an enormous proliferation of commentary, students of Latin America and its literature need a body of basic texts that will provide them an orientation in the various research areas and new schools of thought that have emerged in the field.

Particularly important are the essays and articles that have appeared in periodicals and other sources that Anglo American readers often find difficult to obtain Individual volumes available Vol 1 Theoretical Debates in Spanish American Literature 448 pages 0 8153 2676 9 Vol 2 Writers of the Spanish Colonial Period 456 pages 0 8153 2678 5 Vol 3 From Romanticism to Modernismo in Latin American Literature 352 pages 0 8153 2680 7 Vol 5 Twentieth Century Spanish American Literature Since 1960 416 pages 0 8153 2681 5 Spanish Meta-Art and Contemporary Cinema Guillermo
