educators and business practitioners delivers a revitalized approach to the discipline that brings international business to life. This edition of the book includes one of a kind chapters on sustainability poverty and innovation as well as explorations of the COVID 19 pandemic and its effects on commerce the business implications of social and civic justice race and inequality debates and new case studies including one on equity diversity and inclusion at Microsoft. The book efficiently prepares students for the global economy and transforms the authors impressive international experience at multinational corporations into an indispensable pedagogical resource. This international adaptation further strengthens the bond between the readers and the contemporary world of international business through the introduction of new case studies caselets illustrations and exhibits related to India Australia bilateral trade association solar mamas of Sudan evolution of Islamic banking in Tanzania McDonald s kosher menu in Israel and so on. It takes us through the emerging factors affecting the international business such as digital transformation and global supply chain strategies post COVID 19. Critical thinking questions added at the end of each chapter will encourage the students to think analytically and delve deeper into the topic.

Outward Foreign Direct Investment in ASEAN Cassey Lee, 2017-02-15. The level of outward foreign direct investment OFDI flows from ASEAN countries has increased rapidly in past two decades. This book examines OFDI trends and patterns in the ASEAN region including the impact of the ASEAN Economic Community. It also provides analyses of country policies affecting OFDI and the drivers of OFDI in Indonesia Malaysia Singapore and Vietnam. Myanmar is studied as an investment frontier for other ASEAN countries. The dynamic economies of Southeast Asia have historically been very large recipients of foreign direct investment FDI. As global capital markets have opened up and these economies have developed their technological and commercial capabilities in more recent years Southeast Asia has emerged as a significant source of outward FDI both within the region and beyond. This important volume by a group of leading regional scholars offers a timely comprehensive accessible and authoritative analysis of this phenomenon. Hal Hill H W Arndt Professor of Southeast Asian Economies Arndt Corden Department of Economics Crawford School of Public Policy Australian National University. A timely rich and comprehensive study filling a major gap in the literature on the increasingly important phenomenon of foreign investment flowing out from regions including developing and middle income countries. Luke Nottage Professor of Comparative and Transnational Business Law Associate Director Centre for Asian and Pacific Law at the University of Sydney.
