Improvement Driven Government David K. Carr, Ian D. Littman, John K. Condon, 1995    Public Service Excellence in the 21st Century Alikhan Baimenov, Panos Liverakos, 2019-01-17 This book combines academic wisdom and practitioners insights to critically examine the challenges faced by civil service systems in the 21st Century. Moreover the book evaluates what types of civil servants are needed to tackle critical issues such as rapidly ageing populations increased urbanisation environmental degradation swift technological advancement and globalisation of the market place in the social and economic realm of the 21st Century. Its topics range from civil service development in post Soviet countries indicating that peer to peer learning is the way forward to civil service reforms in China Japan and Korea in their quest to satisfy their citizens demands and expectations in the 21st Century. Other topics span across regional analyses by focusing on current dominant trends and challenges confronting administrative and civil service systems vis vis technology innovation and big data and their disruptive effects on society and government. This book will be of interest to both academics and practitioners and would be builders of the 21st Century world    Public Service for the 21st Century United States. Congress. House. Littman, 2002 This book includes five case studies which consider innovation in government entities in the U S exploring what innovation may look like and what it takes to create a culture of innovation. The editors and contributors discuss what's known about fostering implementing and replicating innovation as well as the relationship between innovators and innovation    CIO, 1996-07 CIO magazine launched in 1987 provides business technology leaders with award winning analysis and insight on information technology trends and a keen understanding of IT's role in achieving business goals

Public Administration in the 21st Century Rumki Basu, 2024-12-30 Public Administration has experienced a fundamental rethinking of its basic objectives concepts and theories during the 21st century. This book examines transformations happening in global societies the economy and in politics to trace the trajectory of public administration as an academic discipline as well as being a focus of social science research. It presents a reassessment of governance in heterogeneous developing countries that goes beyond the traditional Weberian bureaucratic model toward new models of organization and management informed by their legal constitutional economic and political needs aspirations and ground realities. This is especially important in relation to the marginalized sections of society that primarily rely on citizen entitlements through public service delivery systems. The author looks at widening the range and scope of public administrative agencies with the gradual cooperation of multiple actors such as civil society people at large and even the private sector in a partnering role. The author revisits the discipline to tackle intellectual dilemmas that current governance theories and practices are confronting or will have to confront in future administrative situations in the context of developing countries of the South. In the second edition the volume brings into focus lessons on policy and governance learnt from the Global South in building administrative capacities in post Covid 19 times An essential read on the mandates and challenges for the state regarding the rising South this book will be indispensable to scholars and researchers of politics especially governance and public policy sociology and development studies It will also be of interest to bureaucrats NGOs and government officials
