An Age of Accountability John L.

Rury,2023-10-13 An Age of Accountability highlights the role of test based accountability as a policy framework in American education from 1970 to 2020 For more than half a century the quest to hold schools and educators accountable for academic achievement has relied almost exclusively on standardized assessment The theory of change embedded in almost all test based accountability programs held that assessment with stipulated consequences could lead to major improvements in schools This was accomplished politically by proclaiming lofty goals of attaining universal proficiency and closing achievement gaps which repeatedly failed to materialize But even after very clear disappointments no other policy framework has emerged to challenge its hegemony The American public today has little confidence in institutions to improve the quality of goods and services they provide especially in the public sector As a consequence many Americans continue to believe that accountability remains a vital necessity even if educators and policy scholars disagree

The Intersections of Critical Pedagogy, Critical Literacy, and Social Justice Katharine Covino,Cara Mulcahy,2024-01-22 Critical literacy research has highlighted the complexities associated with integrating critical literacy theory with classroom practice recognizing the intersection between critical literacy and culturally sustaining pedagogies and the resistance faced by educators as they create spaces for courageous conversations critical engagement with text and progressive text creation Although the complexities of moving from theory to practice are more understood than they previously were how educators navigate the inherent tensions of fostering and sustaining a critical practice is less clear This volume defines educator as a PreK 12 classroom teacher or as a teacher educator whose work is predominantly associated with university based teacher education Their roles and responsibilities are diverse Through an unpacking of the curricula courses programs and professional learning spaces in which educators operate this edited volume seeks to answer these questions How do educators develop a critical practice of their own How do educators navigate areas of resistance How do educators sustain their practice in the face of resistance How do educators address concerns of parents colleagues administrators and stakeholders How do educators link social justice issues to critical literacy critical pedagogy
