Theorizing Native Studies Audra Simpson,2014-05-07 This important collection makes a compelling argument for the importance of theory in Native studies Within the field there has been understandable suspicion of theory stemming both from concerns about urgent political issues needing to take precedence over theoretical speculations and from hostility toward theory as an inherently Western imperialist epistemology The editors of Theorizing Native Studies take these concerns as the ground for recasting theoretical endeavors as attempts to identify the larger institutional and political structures that enable racism inequities and the displacement of indigenous peoples They emphasize the need for Native people to be recognized as legitimate theorists and for the theoretical work happening outside the academy in Native activist groups and communities to be acknowledged Many of the essays demonstrate how Native studies can productively engage with others seeking to dismantle and decolonize the settler state including scholars putting theory to use in critical ethnic studies gender and sexuality studies and postcolonial studies Taken together the essays demonstrate how theory can serve as a decolonizing practice Contributors Christopher Bracken Glen Coulthard Mishuana Goeman Dian Million Scott Morgensen Robert Nichols Vera Palmer Mark Rifkin Audra Simpson Andrea Smith Teresia Teaiwa Colouring It Forward - Discover Northern Dene Nation Art & Wisdom Diana Frost,2017-03-29 Colouring It Forward Discover Northern Dene Nation Art Wisdom features the beautiful art created by Chipewyan artist Michael Fatt and Gwich'in artist Christiana Latham as well as stories from the late Dene Elder George Blondin Part of the proceeds from your purchase will go to the artists to Mr Blondin

Gifts of the Season Carol Battorf,Katherine Graves,2018-10 Long ago Indigenous people lived in villages along the beaches and rivers of the northwest coast Their houses were made of planks cut from huge cedar trees They carved beautiful canoes big enough to carry many people on long voyages across ocean waters They made clothes out of skins and furs for special occasions and to keep themselves warm They also used cattails and cedar bark for everyday clothes They wove warm blankets of mountain goat hair and dog fur mixing it with feathers and other soft materials Their food came mostly from the sea The men fished and some caught huge whales The women dug clams and gathered roots and greens to cook and eat They worked hard but there was food for all and time to enjoy themselves too Children learned by watching the grownups work and then they worked too There was no school to go to but every day was a time to learn new things They played too A favorite game was a tug of war They played hiding things and finding them and they raced each other to see who was the fastest They loved the water and spent much time swimming and paddling small canoes When you color the pages of this book you can learn some of these things those children did long ago Since there is a lot of detail in the pictures you might want to use felt pens or colored pencils instead of crayons Whatever you decide to use most importantly have fun
