All The Sad Young Literary Men Paperback Common:

Out of Russia Adrian Wanner, 2011-06-09 Out of Russia is the first scholarly work to focus on a group of writers who over the past decade have formed a distinct phenomenon immigrants with cultural and linguistic roots in Russia who have chosen to write in the language of their adopted countries. The best known among these are Andre Makine who writes in French, Vladimir Kaminer who writes in German, and Gary Shteyngart who writes in English. Wanner also addresses the work of emerging immigrant writers active in North America, Germany, and Israel. He argues that it is in part by writing in a language other than their native Russian that these writers have made something of a commodity of their Russianness. That many of them also happen to be Jewish adds still another layer to the questions of identity raised by their work. In situating these writers within broader contexts, Wanner explores such topics as migration, cultural hybrids, and the construction and perception of ethnicity.

Into the Melée Francis Mulhern, 2024-06-04 An essential collection of literary criticism from Francis Mulhern, author of The Moment of Scrutiny and Culture Metaculture. Into the Melée collects Francis Mulhern's insightful critical writing, much of it in the hybrid literary form that Bagehot described as the review-like essay and the essay-like review. It opens with questions of nationality from F.R. Leavis's efforts to assert a normatively English literary subject and Ferdinand Mount's exploration of English cultural landscapes to Tom Nairn's political vision of England and Scotland after Britain and Joe Cleary's account of Irish modernism. Another cluster of texts concerns intellectuals and, in one way or another, the politics of revolution and counter revolution from Burke to the present. There is an updated sketch of the magazine n 1 as heir to the militant traditions of Partisan Review. What is literature? Sartre's answer was committed literature. The writer, as such, was of the left. But culture and politics are discrepant practices inhabiting one another in permanent tension. In its embrace of provisionality and its magpie curiosity, Mulhern observes, the essay is a mode especially well suited to the purposes of a Marxist criticism morally committed to the value of being surprised.

Raymond Carver published short stories such as Are These Actual Miles that cataloged the furniture, portable air conditioners, and children's bicycles in a family home. Some years later the garbage barge Mobro 4000 turned into an international scandal as it spent months at sea unable to dump its trash as it was refused by port after port. Tim Jelfs's The Argument about Things in the 1980s considers all this and more in a broad study of the literature and culture of the long 1980s. It contributes to the moment scholarly debate about material culture, high finance, and ecological
