New Haven Noir Amy Bloom, 2017-07-25 In an Ivy League town Bloom turns Yale's motto Lux et Veritas on its head finding darkness and deceit in every corner of New Haven Kirkus Reviews The image of a charming college town serves New Haven well but its natives know that the city has been built on a rich and violent history that still seeps out from between the cracks in the sidewalks and the halls of learning Now New York Times bestselling author and Connecticut resident Amy Bloom masterfully curates a star studded cast of contributors featuring Michael Cunningham Stephen L Carter and Roxana Robinson to portray New Haven's underbelly Highlights of the anthology include Lisa D Gray's The Queen of Secrets which won the Robert L Fish Memorial Award and John Crowley's Spring Break winner of the Edgar Award for Best Short Story Tales by Alice Mattison Chris Knopf Jonathan Stone Sarah Pemberton Strong Karen E Olson Jessica Speart Chandra Prasad David Rich Hirsh Sawhney and Bloom herself round out this impressive collection Town gown tensions highlight several of the 15 stories in this stellar Akashic noir anthology set in the Elm City This volume is particularly strong on established authors many of whom have impressive credentials outside the genre Publishers Weekly starred review The anthology brings together writers who take varied approaches to the idea of noir in the Elm City Some stories are historical some are contemporary All the classic New Haven landmarks are there including plenty of Yale The full sweep of New Haven's character is on display in the anthology Connecticut Magazine

The Divided City Alan Mallach, 2018-06-12 In The Divided City urban practitioner and scholar Alan Mallach presents a detailed picture of what has happened over the past 15 to 20 years in industrial cities like Pittsburgh and Baltimore as they have undergone unprecedented unexpected revival He spotlights these changes while placing them in their larger economic social and political context Most importantly he explores the pervasive significance of race in American cities and looks closely at the successes and failures of city governments nonprofit entities and citizens as they have tried to address the challenges of change The Divided City concludes with strategies to foster greater equality and opportunity firmly grounding them in the cities economic and political realities

Chokepoint Capitalism Cory Doctorow, Rebecca Giblin, 2022-09-27 A call to action for the creative class and labor movement to rally against the power of Big Tech and Big Media Corporate concentration has breached the stratosphere as have corporate profits An ever expanding constellation of industries are now monopolies where sellers have excessive power over buyers or monopsonies where buyers hold the whip hand over sellers or both In Chokepoint Capitalism scholar Rebecca Giblin and writer and activist Cory Doctorow argue we're in a new era of chokepoint capitalism with exploitative businesses creating insurmountable barriers to competition that enable them to capture value that should rightfully go to others All workers are weakened by this but the problem is especially well illustrated by the plight of creative workers From Amazon's use of digital rights management and bundling to radically change the economics of book publishing to Google and Facebook's siphoning away of ad revenues from news media and the Big Three record labels use of inordinately long contracts to up their own margins at the cost of artists chokepoints are everywhere By analyzing book publishing and news live music and music streaming screenwriting radio and more Giblin and Doctorow deftly show how powerful corporations construct anti competitive flywheels designed to lock in users and suppliers make their markets hostile to new entrants and then force workers and suppliers to accept unfairly low prices In the book s second half Giblin and Doctorow then explain how to batter through those chokepoints with tools ranging from transparency rights to collective action and ownership radical interoperability contract terminations job guarantees and minimum wages for creative work Chokepoint Capitalism is a call to workers of all sectors to unite to help smash these chokepoints and take back the power and profit that s being heisted away before it s too late

The Black Box Society Frank Pasquale, 2015-01-05 Every day corporations are connecting the dots about our personal behavior silently scrutinizing clues left behind by our work habits and Internet use The data compiled and portraits created are incredibly detailed to the point of being invasive But who connects the dots about what firms are doing with this information The Black Box Society argues that we all need to be able to do so and to set limits on how big data affects our lives Hidden algorithms can make or ruin reputations decide the destiny of entrepreneurs or even devastate an entire economy Shrouded in secrecy and complexity decisions at major Silicon Valley and Wall Street firms were long assumed to be neutral and technical But leaks whistleblowers and legal disputes have shed new light on automated judgment Self serving and reckless behavior is surprisingly common and easy to hide in code protected by legal and real secrecy Even after billions of dollars of fines have been levied underfunded regulators may have only scratched the surface of this troubling behavior Frank Pasquale exposes how powerful interests abuse secrecy for profit and explains ways to rein them in Demanding transparency is only the first step An intelligible society would assure that key decisions of its most important firms are fair nondiscriminatory and open to criticism Silicon Valley and Wall Street need to accept as much accountability as they impose on others

The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media Gerard Goggin, Larissa Hjorth, 2014-05-09 The last decade has witnessed the rise of the cell phone from a mode of communication to an indispensable multimedia device and this phenomenon has led to the burgeoning of mobile communication studies in media cultural studies and communication departments across the academy The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media seeks to be the definitive publication for scholars and students interested in comprehending all the various aspects of mobile media This collection which gathers together original articles by a global roster of contributors from a variety of disciplines sets out to contextualize the increasingly convergent areas surrounding social geosocial and mobile media discourses Features include comprehensive and interdisciplinary models and approaches for analyzing mobile media wide ranging case studies that draw from this truly global field including China Africa Southeast Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Europe the UK and the US a consideration of mobile media as part of broader media ecologies and histories chapters setting out the economic and policy underpinnings of mobile media explorations of the artistic and creative dimensions of mobile media studies of emerging issues such as ecological sustainability up to date overviews on social and locative media by pioneers in the field Drawn from a range of theoretical artistic and cultural approaches The Routledge Companion to Mobile Media will serve as a crucial reference text to inform and orient those interested in this quickly expanding and far reaching field The Nation ,2001 Private Power, Online Information Flows and EU Law Angela Daly,2016-12-01 This monograph examines how European Union law and regulation address concentrations of private economic power which impede free information flows on the Internet to the detriment of Internet users autonomy In particular competition law sector specific regulation if it exists data protection and human rights law are considered and assessed to the extent they can tackle such concentrations of power for the benefit of users Using a series of illustrative case studies of Internet provision search mobile devices and app stores and the cloud the work demonstrates the gaps that currently exist in EU law and regulation It is argued that these gaps exist due in part to current overarching trends guiding the regulation of economic power namely neoliberalism by which only the situation of market failure can invite ex ante rules buoyed by the lobbying of regulators and legislators by those in possession of such economic power to achieve outcomes which favour their businesses Given this systemic and extra legal nature of the reasons as to why the gaps exist solutions from outside the system are proposed at the end of each case study This study will appeal to EU competition lawyers and media lawyers Report of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station, New Haven, Conn. for the Year ... Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station,1878 Vols 41 1916 17 include the Station s Bulletin and other of Its publications which are also issued separately Annual Report Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station,1901 American Florist ,1903 New England Families, Genealogical and Memorial William Richard Cutter,1913 The Standard ,1911 Annual Report of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station for ...
