The Greatest Show on Earth Silas Weir,2022-07-06 The glass was running over and the stress level had hit its peak Brian Minges was about to drop the grenade A small trip to the ice cream store turned into a changing moment in his life telling his wife that he was leaving her after thirty seven years of marriage because he was gay and fell in love with another man The wailing screams of death rang out in the parking lot Hiding behind the curtain or in the closet Brian made the decision to announce to his family the news With two adult children and one grandson a different day was about to begin After accidentally meeting his soulmate in the DFW Airport Brian could not get him out of his mind Even after leaving the family for three days to escape with his soulmate he is convinced by his son to return to the family and try to put the relationship with his wife Lacy together Needless to say it was a difficult road to travel Over the course of the spring and summer Brian could not get him out of his head even after a number of family trips in a new motor home along with a family wedding When following his soulmate on his LinkedIn page and liking all of his postings Brian got up enough courage to reach out It took some time but the connection worked When Brian announced to his close coworker that He was back he asked Do you still love him He said he never stopped A long road in the changing of life kept Brian going even after loss and a sudden career change With many mountains to climb the road was difficult and tiring Keeping the faith would a long term relationship with his soulmate work Only time will tell

Targeted Kelly Gates,2025-08-19 How video transformed policing and security Video cameras are everywhere attached to buildings drones and dashboards embedded in smartphones laptops and doorbells worn on police uniforms and sunglasses In Targeted Kelly Gates argues that the resulting avalanche of video has transformed the landscape of policing and security in the twenty first century Video production analysis and archival management are now central to the ways police power is exercised criminal law enforced and spaces of human habitation securitized Gates examines the primacy of video in four key areas of policing and security the field of digital multimedia forensics private video surveillance infrastructure development police body worn camera systems and video analytics for automated surveillance Video AI Case studies of two companies illustrate the role of corporations in these far reaching media technological changes Target Corporation has integrated its retail security operations with law enforcement expanding its surveillance beyond its stores and parking lots and into the criminal legal system Axon Enterprise is leveraging the growing volume of police body cam video to build a large scale proprietary platform for policing Targeted reveals the role of video infrastructure development in the increasingly entangled relationship between the modern police and the modern corporation in the long wake and ruins of neoliberalism
